Welcome from the CEO

Archway Learning Trust is a vibrant learning community where students are cared for, receive a high quality education and experience every opportunity to be successful.

School years are amongst the most important in our lives, helping us to develop the knowledge, skills and characteristics we need to succeed. At Archway Learning Trust, we are committed to giving every child the very best start that we can. We offer outstanding teaching and learning and exceptional personal support in an inclusive, faith based environment. I became a teacher because I believe in equal opportunities for everyone.

I also believe that every child has the right to an excellent education. Learning is at the heart of any good society and the opportunity to learn from teachers who are committed, enthusiastic and innovative is a right that all children should have.

Our mission is to help children to understand and believe in themselves, respect and care for others and to develop a wide understanding of faith, the world around them and their place within it. The determination of our youngsters to succeed, and the passion of our teachers to make a difference, makes me proud to be Chief Executive Officer of this diverse and dynamic family of academies.

About the Trust

Archway Learning Trust, previously Bluecoat Academies Trust was formed in April 2014 as a result of the very long and successful history of Bluecoat Academy. We recently welcomed three further secondary schools in Derby to the Trust and are excited to be opening Bluecoat Trent Academy, a secondary Free School in Nottingham in September 2021.

The Trust comprises of Bluecoat Aspley Academy, Bluecoat Sixth Form, Bluecoat Wollaton Academy, Bluecoat Beechdale Academy, Bluecoat Primary Academy, The Nottingham Emmanuel School and Sixth Form, The Long Eaton School, Lees Brook Community School, Merrill Academy and the Bluecoat SCITT Alliance (School Centred Initial Teacher Training).

Our aim as a Trust is to shine a spotlight nationally and internationally on our inclusive ethos so that more schools and academies can be encouraged to take up our approach to inclusive, enriching, knowledge based teaching, preparing young people for lifelong learning based firmly on our Christian principles.

The growth of the Trust is a truly exciting time for prospective candidates who are looking to further their careers in a dynamic learning community that has opportunity at every point to share and learn from each other in order to become the best that we can be.

We are proud of our diverse student population and passionate to create a staff team reflective of this diversity. We actively welcome applications from all backgrounds and you can be assured of a warm welcome at Archway.

School Locations

Welcome from the Principal

I'd like to firstly thank you for your interest in this role at The Long Eaton School.

I joined the school as Headteacher in January 2020 and it's fair to say my first year in post has not been quite as I'd expected! That said, managing the school through a global pandemic has allowed me to quickly get to know the staff and students and see first-hand the unique sense of community that exists at the school.

In February of 2021 the school joined Archway Learning Trust, an organisation I am very familiar with, having worked for them for the previous 14 years. I fundamentally believe in the Archway vision of 'working together, transforming lives' and feel this very naturally aligns with our vision and values at The Long Eaton School. Through our collaborative work with the trust, we are committed to establishing a learning culture for all, which is underpinned by our 4 key values:

- Care and respect for ourselves, others and the environment
- Challenge and support for all to achieve their potential
- Co-operation between school, home and the community
- Consistency and fairness in our values and expectations

We are passionate about ensuring that each and every one of our students fulfils their potential academically and is delivered a curriculum that supports this and their personal development. We aim to develop independent learners with transferable skills which can be applied to both their future studies and wider lives; ensuring our students are prepared for the outside world and go on to make a positive contribution to society.

We are a community school and our students know that they are part of an organisation that has their best interests at heart and one that will support them in planning and preparing for their future. We have close relationships with all stakeholders in our community, which includes parents, governors, primary feeder schools and local sporting and charitable organisations. It is through developing these positive relationships that we know our students not only feel part of this community, but engage and are able to positively contribute to it.

The Long Eaton School is a forward thinking school, committed to developing high aspirations, a thirst for knowledge and a passion for lifelong learning shared by students and staff.

The Vacancy

The Trust is seeking to appoint an outstanding, enthusiastic, committed and successful Design Technology teacher with a proven ability to deliver inspirational teaching to our students. The successful candidate will be based at The Long Eaton School.

We wish to appoint an imaginative Teacher of Design Technology who will be professional, adaptable and dedicated to delivering high quality teaching. We expect the successful applicant to demonstrate a clear understanding of how to deliver the Design Technology curriculum and raise the standards and achievement of our students.

Candidates should pay attention to the job description/person specification and explain within their application how they meet the criteria, whilst also describing what they will bring to the post from their own knowledge and experience.

We currently have requirements at schools within both the Derby and Nottingham regions and whilst successful applicants would be appointed to predominantly to work at one of our schools, there may be a requirement for the post holder to work across any of the sites that comprise Archway Learning Trust in accordance with the needs of the Trust.
