

Teacher of Drama

Teachers Main or Upper Pay Range

Full Time

Start date: 1 September 2021

Sir William Robertson Academy has an exciting opportunity for a driven Teacher of Drama to join our department. Applicants will be required to teach across the ability range at KS3, KS4 and A Level, delivering inventive and creative lessons that would both engage and challenge students to achieve their full potential. The successful candidate would have access to our Drama studio which consists of state-of-the-art lighting and sound. We are looking for a candidate who will be passionate about extra-curricular provision at SWRA in running lunchtime clubs at KS3 and being an active member of facilitating the annual school production. Details of our current Performing Arts activities can be found on Twitter @performingSWRA

In 2020, 90% of pupils achieved 9 - 4 grades in GCSE Drama and 69% achieved 9 - 5 grades.

Why join the Sir William Robertson Academy?

Sir William Robertson Academy is a popular and successful 11-18 comprehensive school situated in delightful rural surroundings on the Lincolnshire/Nottinghamshire border. Pupils with a positive approach to learning, a committed staff and a supportive body of parents have helped to create a school which was judged by OFSTED (March 2019) to be 'Good' in every area of its provision. Sir William Robertson Academy has been acknowledged as one of the top 100 non-selective state-funded schools in England.
