Recruitment of ex-offenders statement

John Kyrle High School is required to publish a copy of its policy on the recruitment of ex-offenders which outlines the following:

The school fully complies with the 'DBS Code of Practice' and will not discriminate unfairly against any subject of a disclosure on the basis of conviction or other information revealed.

All applicants are subject to an enhanced DBS check before the job appointment is confirmed; this includes details of convictions, cautions and reprimands, as well as spent and unspent convictions. A positive disclosure will not necessarily prohibit a candidate from being offered a position.

The school is committed to the fair treatment of all applicants, regardless of race, gender, religion, sexual orientation, responsibilities for dependants, age, physical or mental disability or offending background.

The school promotes equal opportunity and welcomes applicants from a wide range of backgrounds, including those with criminal records.

Candidates are selected for interview based on their skills, qualifications and expertise.

All application forms and recruitment notices contain a statement that disclosure will be requested if a position is offered.

All applicants are encouraged to provide details of their criminal record at the earliest stage possible. This may be sent under a separate and confidential cover letter.

All applicants will be made aware of the 'DBS Code of Practice' and will be provided with a copy on request.

The school is committed to ensuring all disclosure information will only be seen by those who require access as part of their duties.

The assistant headteacher (personnel) will discuss any matters revealed on a DBS certificate with the applicant before withdrawing a conditional offer of employment.

At the interview, or in subsequent discussion, opened and measured discussion will take place on the subject of the offences.

Failure to reveal information that is directly relevant to the position sought could lead to withdrawal of any offer made.

Where the role involves engaging in regulated activity with children, it is a criminal offence for an individual:

- ▶ to seek to engage in regulated activity from which he/she is barred;
- ▶ to offer to engage in regulated activity from which he/she is barred; and
- ▶ to engage in regulated activity from which he/she is barred.
