We are seeking to appoint a dynamic and inspirational part time Teacher of Economics (with Business Studies) to inspire our students. There is the opportunity for this to be a full time position if the successful candidate is able to teach mathematics. The school has a highly committed staff team with extremely well motivated students and excellent facilities. Both Economics and Business Studies are very popular A level subjects at the school with up to two groups of students each year studying each subject. The successful candidate would be required to teach aspects of both courses.

The successful candidate will:

- Have a passion for Economics and Business Studies and the ability to inspire students.
- Have experience of successful Economics and Business Studies teaching and ability to teach KS5 Economics.
- Be capable of bringing Economics to life in the classroom with creative and engaging lessons that deliver pace and challenge.
- Contribute to whole school improvement and self-evaluation.
- Be able to teach Mathematics to at least KS3 if seeking a full time position.

Marling School was graded 'Outstanding' in every category under the 2013 Ofsted Inspection framework. The school is a Teaching School and National Support School and leads the Cotswold Edge Teaching Alliance. The school is also an approved DfE sponsor and is the lead school in the Cotswold Beacon Academy Trust (a multi-academy trust) with Berkeley Primary School and Cam Woodfield Junior School.

We welcome applications from both experienced teachers and NQTs. Marling School is a vibrant and exciting learning and teaching environment, which has a commitment to continuing professional development. Please do not hesitate to contact the headteacher (c/o Amanda Oxberry) if you wish to discuss the context of the school or the opportunities it has to offer.

Marling School is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and young people and expects all staff and volunteers to share this commitment. The appointed person will be required to undergo an enhanced DBS check.

For information and further details please contact Amanda Oxberry, Personal Assistant to the Headteacher
