TEACHER OF ECONOMICS / BUSINESS STUDIES

Start date: September 2026

Brampton Manor Academy is seeking to appoint a highly committed Teacher of Economics and/or Business Studies to join our outstanding department from September 2026.

Economics is one of the Academy's flagship subjects. We teach OCR GCSE and A Level Economics, with consistently exceptional outcomes, including an average A Level grade of A+ in 2025. Over 200 students are currently studying Economics at A/AS Level, with many progressing to Russell Group and Oxbridge universities.

We also offer Edexcel GCSE Business, depending on staffing expertise.

The department comprises six specialist teachers and is academically ambitious, collaborative and exceptionally well resourced.

We are seeking a highly qualified graduate who:
- has strong subject knowledge in Economics and/or Business;
- is committed to high standards and disciplined teaching;
- thrives in a structured, high-performing environment.

The post would suit an ECT or an experienced teacher. A TLR may be available for a suitably experienced applicant, including key stage leadership responsibilities.

We offer:
- highly motivated, academically ambitious students;
- strong professional development and career progression;
- Main/Upper Pay Range (Inner London);
- free staff breakfast and lunch.

Closing date: Monday 13 April 2026
Interviews: on a rolling basis
