Candidate Application Pack

Teacher of Economics

START DATE: September 2026

Dear Candidate,

Thank you for your interest in Ernest Bevin Academy, as we enter our Centenary year, it's a really exciting time to join us. My vision is ambitious: for Ernest Bevin Academy to be recognised as one of the top boys' schools in the country. We will achieve this through a combination of academic excellence with a culture built on high expectations, strong relationships and a relentless belief in every student's potential.

As an inner-London community school, our pupils reflect the diversity of the local area with nearly twice the national average proportion of those who qualify for Pupil Premium. Therefore, all staff at the academy are driven by a strong mission to provide educational excellence to every single student.

Our values of Ambition, Perseverance, and Unity sit at the heart of everything we do. Ambition for our students to achieve their full potential. Perseverance to support students to overcome challenges and keep moving forward. Unity to support and inspire one another. We want every young person who joins us to flourish – academically, personally, and socially – leaving Ernest Bevin confident, resilient and ready to make a positive difference in the world.

We pride ourselves on ensuring that every member of staff is supported to also be the very best that they can be in whichever role they have in our academy. We have a number of core benefits which include competitive rates of pay when compared to the maintained sector; access to a contributory pension scheme relevant to your role; access to a Health Cash Plan; Westfields Rewards scheme; enhanced parental leave policies; and tailored Continuous Professional Development (CPD) for every role.

I look forward to meeting you in person.

Damola Ademolake, Principal

Working at Ernest Bevin Academy

We are proud to be part of United Learning Trust, our schools work as a team and achieve more by sharing than any single school could. Our subject specialists, group-wide intranet, own curriculum, and online learning portal all help us share knowledge and resource, helping to simplify work processes and manage workloads for an improved work-life balance.

As a Group our staff are better rewarded: with good career opportunities, benefits, and ultimately, the satisfaction of helping children to succeed. We invest in our staff wellbeing, it's our core ethos we call 'the best in everyone'.

Central Office staff work closely with schools, offering a wealth of expertise to underpin our knowledge. The specialist departments, including HR, finance, technology, strategy and performance, estates, and marketing, work alongside dedicated school improvement teams.

Committed to having a diverse and representative team

We welcome applications from everyone committed to our ethos and would particularly welcome applications from black and minority ethnic candidates, who are currently under-represented in the Group as a whole. We always appoint on merit.

Flexible Working

At United Learning, we value the dedication, professionalism and hard work of our teachers, support staff and school leaders, and strongly believe that everyone should be able to do their job without sacrificing a family life or compromising their well-being. We are committed to encouraging and enabling flexible working opportunities throughout our schools wherever possible and will support employees seeking to work more flexibly.
