We are committed to equality of opportunity for all our staff. We particularly welcome applicants from ethnic minority backgrounds as they are currently under-represented on our staff body. We recognise the vital contribution that members of a diverse team make to our students' learning. The range of cultural experiences, differing viewpoints and role models this brings is essential in our Trust and we recognise the gap that would be left in our offering without these.

The school is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and young people and expects all staff and volunteers to share this commitment. Therefore, the successful applicant will be subject to Enhanced Disclosure and Barring Service check.

Dear Candidate,

Thank you for your interest in the role of Teacher of Economics. The information here gives a brief sense of our school. Equally, you are most welcome to arrange time to visit.

We have 1,200 girls in Year 7-11 and a large co-educational sixth form of 450 students. We proudly draw from a large number of boroughs and schools in our sixth form creating a diverse and vibrant community.

LPGS has a proud history and is an exciting environment in which to work and study. The arts are highly valued and invested in and staff and students alike enjoy the wide range of opportunities available: our dynamic careers academy and huge range of clubs, societies, groups and trips.

We have an ambitious and broad curriculum, for example:

- All Year 7 students learn an instrument for a term as part of our music scheme to widen access and participation.
- KS3 students enjoy Dance and a Visual Arts rotation of art, textiles and digital media.
- We have a wide range of clubs, societies, educational visits and exchanges as part of our enrichment programme.

We achieve positive academic results whilst also focusing on student wellbeing and mental health.

If you would like to be part of our school community, we would welcome your application.

Kind regards,

Steve Whittle
Headteacher

Life at LPGS

My daughter really benefited from the healthy and sustained pastoral support at the school – mental health and wellbeing are not treated in a tokenistic, one-off kind of way.

Parent

When you have a child who is on the SEN register, it can sometimes feel like pushing water up a hill, but the SENCO explains everything so well, makes it clear, and that is because he cares.

Parent

I felt the sense of community, we were all one team with one common goal of just achieving great things, and we were all willing to help each other. That's what really drew me to here.

Sixth Form student

Pupils flourish into independent, confident young adults at this school.

Ofsted

My students and colleagues make me laugh and I look forward to coming into work due to their hard work and fascinating insights.

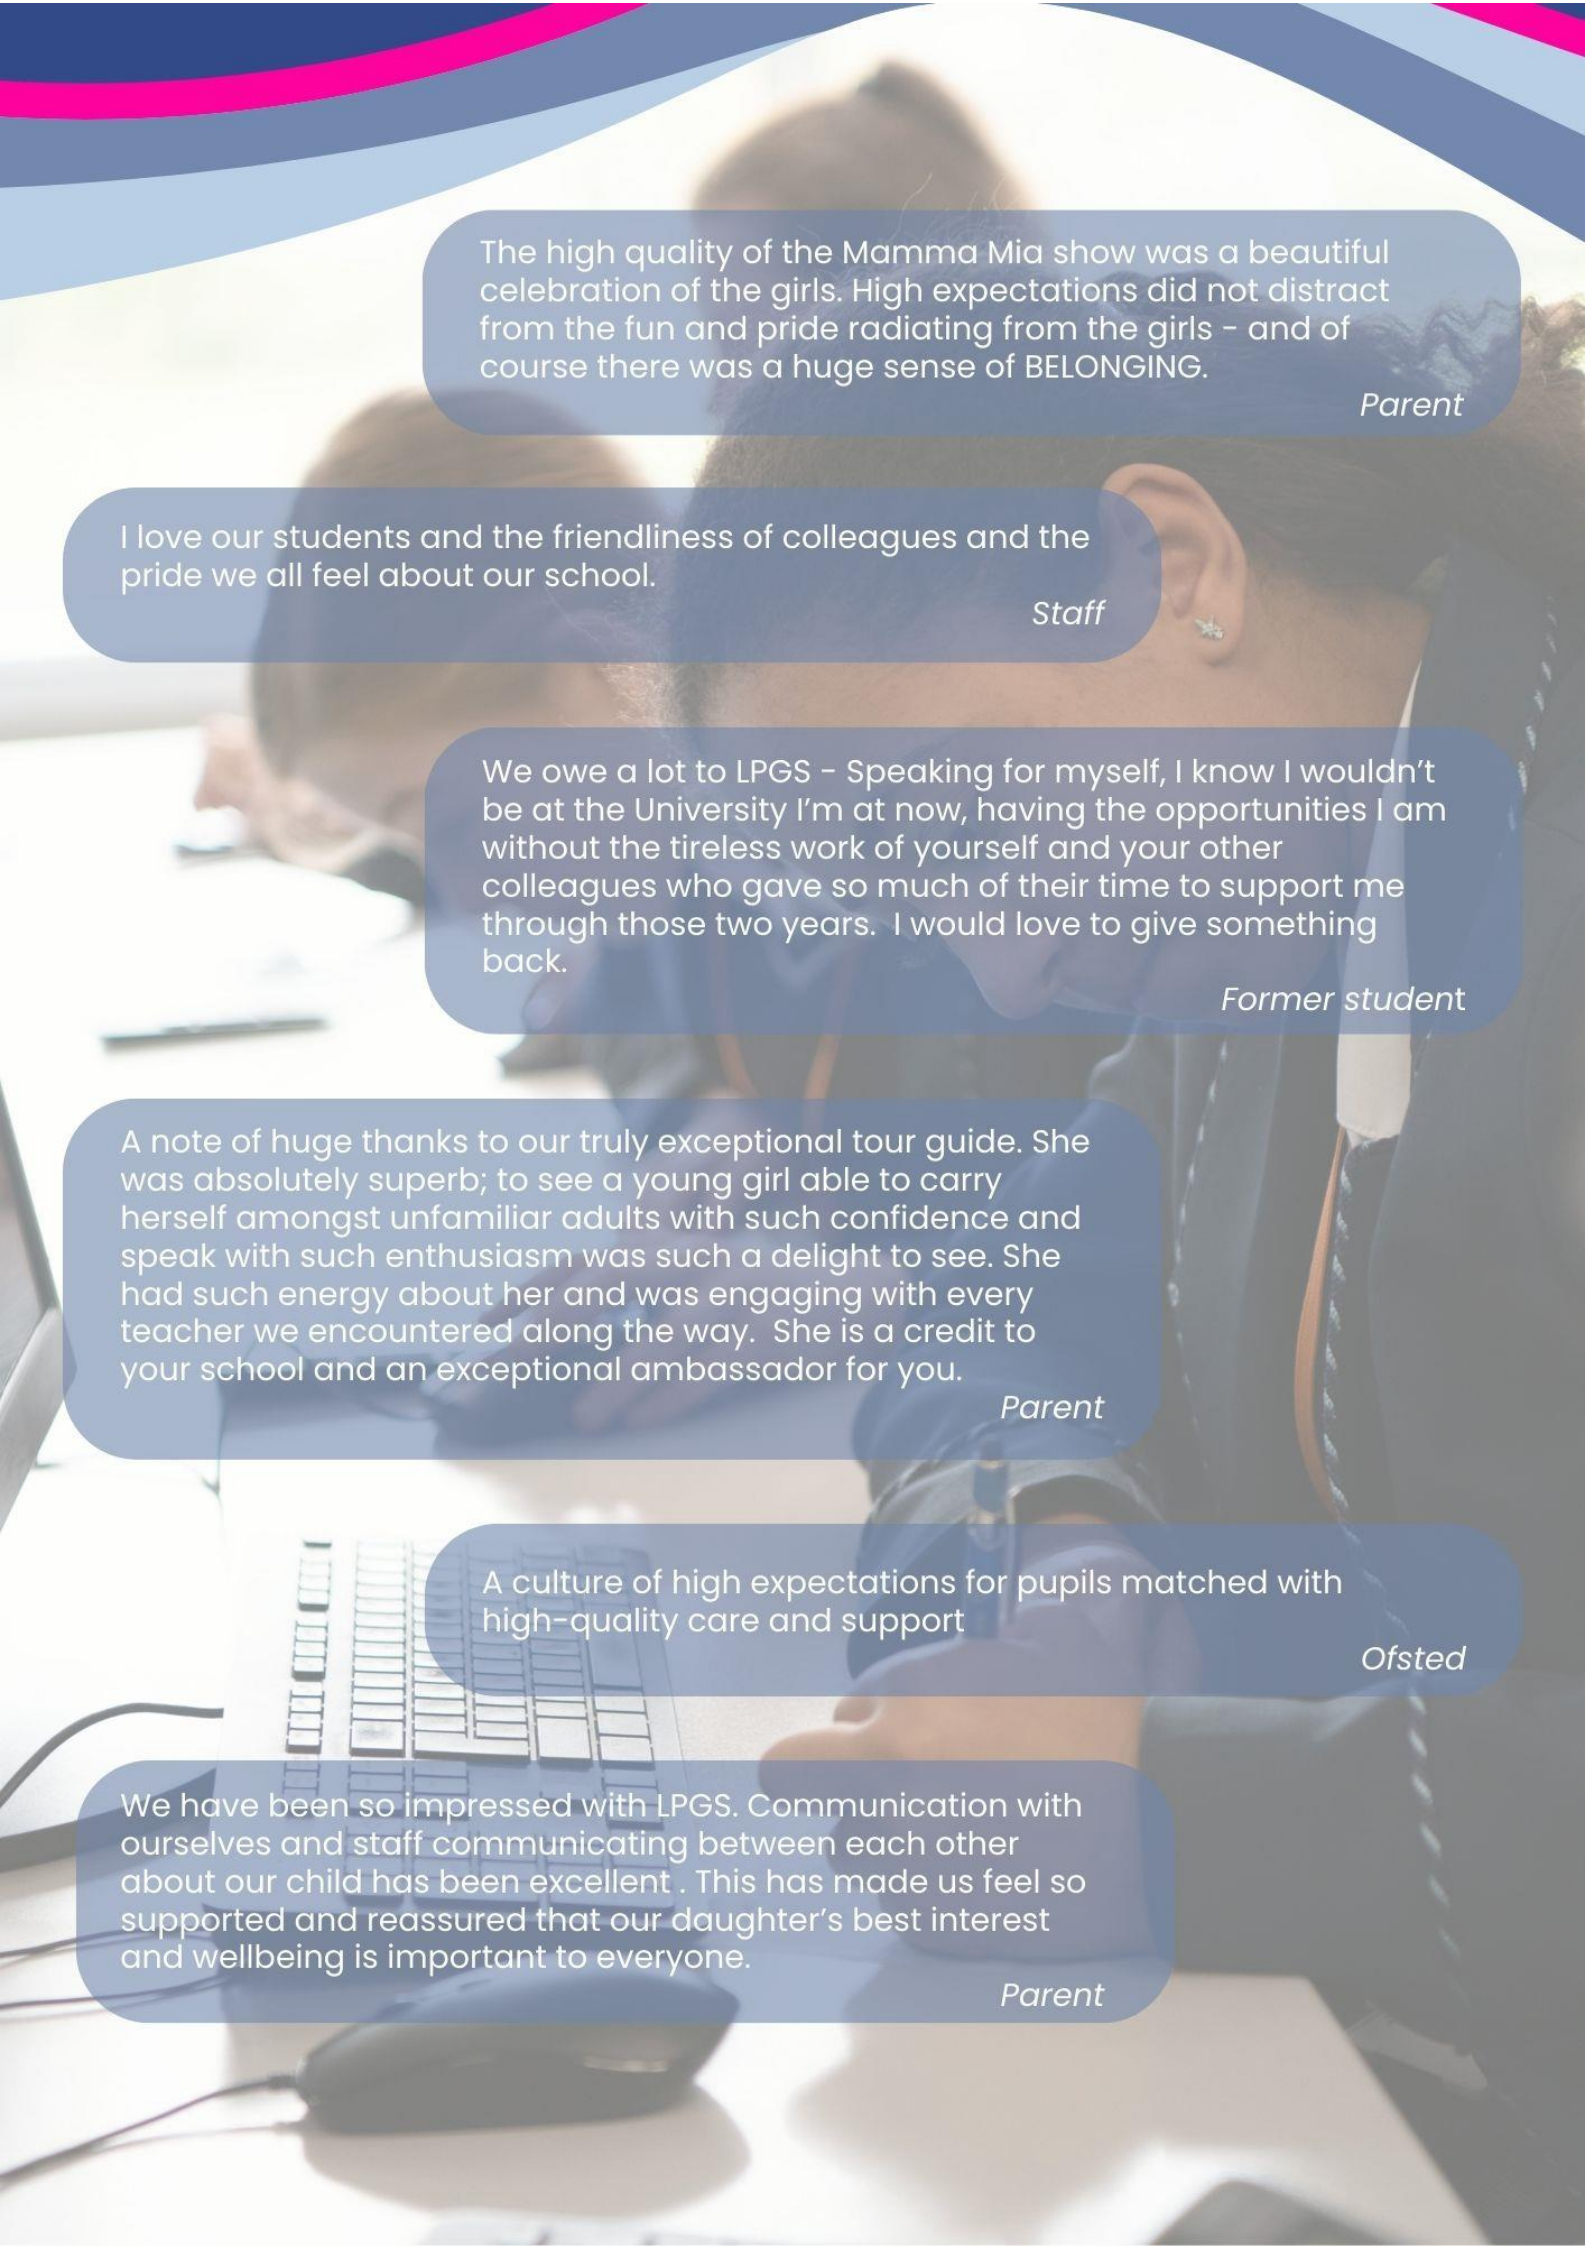

Staff

The quality of teaching at this school is nothing short of outstanding. Staff have always been there to fully prepare us for exams and have always gone out of their way to provide us with a high standard of education. The Sixth Form community is extremely friendly and diverse and is a community of individuals who are keen to succeed and help one another.

Student

We are sure our daughter learned a lot about teamwork, perseverance and the joy of adventure thanks to your thoughtful planning and engaging activities on this trip.

Parent

The high quality of the Mamma Mia show was a beautiful celebration of the girls. High expectations did not distract from the fun and pride radiating from the girls – and of course there was a huge sense of BELONGING.

Parent

I love our students and the friendliness of colleagues and the pride we all feel about our school.

Staff

We owe a lot to LPGS – Speaking for myself, I know I wouldn't be at the University I'm at now, having the opportunities I am without the tireless work of yourself and your other colleagues who gave so much of their time to support me through those two years. I would love to give something back.

Former student

A note of huge thanks to our truly exceptional tour guide. She was absolutely superb; to see a young girl able to carry herself amongst unfamiliar adults with such confidence and speak with such enthusiasm was such a delight to see. She had such energy about her and was engaging with every teacher we encountered along the way. She is a credit to your school and an exceptional ambassador for you.

Parent

A culture of high expectations for pupils matched with high-quality care and support

Ofsted

We have been so impressed with LPGS. Communication with ourselves and staff communicating between each other about our child has been excellent. This has made us feel so supported and reassured that our daughter's best interest and wellbeing is important to everyone.
