Salary	MPS/UPS	Hours	Full-time
Department	English F aculty	Reports To	Director of Faculty for Maths

JOB PURPOSE:

To teach exceptional lessons that engage and challenge all students, whilst creating a supportive and stimulating learning environment in the classroom.

To make a significant contribution to the values and the ethos of the school and actively promote and uphold all school policies.

KEY RESPONSIBILITIES AND DUTIES:

Teaching and Learning

- With direction from the Director of Faculty and within the context of the school's curriculum and schemes of work, plan and prepare effective lessons.
- Teach engaging and effective lessons that motivate, inspire and improve pupil attainment.
- Ensure students acquire and consolidate knowledge, skills and understanding appropriate to the subject taught.
- Ensure that all students achieve the least at chronological age or level or, if well below level, make significant and continuing progress towards achieving at chronological age level.
- Direct and supervise support staff assigned to lessons and when required participate in related recruitment and selection activities.
- Organise trips and visits to enhance the leaning of all students.

Assessment and Reporting

- To lead, monitor and evaluate the assessment and feedback to students in line with whole school and department policy.
- To follow department monitoring and tracking systems relating to student's attainment, progress and achievement.
- Mark, grade and give written/verbal and diagnostic feedback as required.
- Undertake assessment of students as requested by external examination bodies, curriculum areas and school procedures.
- Assess, record and report on the attendance, progress, development and attainment of students and to keep such records as are required.
- Complete the relevant documentation to assist in the tracking of students.
- To follow department policy regarding department tracking of student progress and use information to inform teaching and learning.

School Culture

- Support the academy's values and ethos by actively promoting and contributing to the development and implementation of policies, practices and procedures.
- Help create a strong academy community, characterised by consistent, orderly behaviour and caring, respectful relationships.
- To be active in issues of student welfare and support.
- Support and work in collaboration with colleagues and other professionals in and beyond the school

 Lead or help to lead an after-school activity once per week; either curriculum based or an extra- curricular club.

Communication

- To communicate effectively and constructively with the parents of pupils as appropriate.
- Where appropriate, to communicate and cooperate with persons or bodies outside the school.
- To follow agreed policies for communications in the school.
- To take an active role in activities such as Open
- Evenings, Parents' Evenings, Sports days etc.

Pastoral Duties

- If required, be a form tutor to an assigned group of students.
- Promote the general progress and well-being of individual students and of the form tutor group as a whole.
- Register students, accompany them to assemblies, encourage their full attendance at all lessons and their participation in other aspects of school life.
- Liaise with the pastoral team to ensure the implementation of the school's pastoral system.
- Contribute to the preparation of action plans and progress files and other reports.
- Alert appropriate staff to problems experienced by students.

Other Professional Requirements

- Establish effective working relationships and be an effective role model to pupils through own personal presentation as well as personal and professional conduct.
- Have high expectations for every pupil and endeavour the opportunity to reach their potential and meet high expectations.
- Co-operate with other staff to ensure a sharing and effective usage of resources to the benefit of the school, department and students.
- Contribute to wider school life through effective participation in meetings and management systems necessary to coordinate the management of the school.
- Work as a team member and identify opportunities for working with colleagues and sharing the development of effective practice with them.
- Undertake other various responsibilities as directed by the Head of Department or Principal.

This job description is not necessarily a comprehensive definition of the post. It will be reviewed at least once a year and it may be subject to modification or amendment at any time after consultation with the holder of the post. The duties may be varied to meet the changing demands of the school at the reasonable discretion of the Headteacher
