Ofsted report – November 2021

The Governors of St Edmund Arrowsmith Catholic High School have an exciting opportunity for a new colleague to join our wonderful English Department. If successful, you will join a team of dedicated and inspiring professionals who share a passion for English and inspire students to repeatedly achieve above-average results.

Whether you are an experienced practitioner who is seeking a change of environment, a former teacher looking to return to the profession or an ECT; the most essential criteria that we are seeking is that you are committed to raising achievement through excellent classroom practice. In return we offer a bespoke CPD programme, research and development, links and networks with other outstanding schools as well as a plethora of extra-curricular and cross-curricular working opportunities.

St Edmund Arrowsmith CHS is a forward-looking and flourishing school, well regarded for the excellence of our academic achievement and the high level of motivation of pupils and staff. Visitors to our school never fail to comment on our respectful students, the positive team ethos amongst staff and the friendly welcome that they receive.

It really is worth applying for this post and joining somewhere special.

If you would like an informal discussion with the Head of English regarding this vacancy, please contact Mrs Pam Lennon (PA/Clerk to Governors) via email: PLennon@arrowsmith.wigan.sch.uk

Completed application forms must be returned to: Mr M J Dumican, Headteacher, St Edmund Arrowsmith Catholic High School, Rookery Avenue, Ashton-in-Makerfield, Wigan, WN4 9PF or via email to: recruitment@arrowsmith.wigan.sch.uk.

The employer is committed to safer recruitment practices and pre-employment checks will be undertaken before any appointment is confirmed. The post is subject to enhanced Disclosure and Barring Service checks. The school is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and young people and expects its staff to share this commitment.
