Person Specification:

We are looking for a dynamic and well-qualified teacher of English & Drama who is:

- Passionate about the subject and who demonstrates an ongoing commitment to developing their own knowledge and understanding.
- Interested in pedagogy, current educational issues and initiatives.
- Interested in and sympathetic to the needs of students of all abilities.
- Committed to providing challenging and stimulating lessons for a very broad ability range.
- Committed to working closely with other members of the department: for example, with partner teachers on A-Level teaching and with LSAs in supporting students with EHC plans.
- Interested in participating in the department's work on curriculum, teaching and learning: for example, contributing to the creation of schemes of work.
- Keen to contribute to the department's extra-curricular activities.

The person appointed will teach across all key stages including A- level.

Job description:

The following duties and responsibilities of all teaching members of the English and Drama department at Camden School for Girls:
