TEACHER OF ENGLISH (from September 2025)

Full or part time

We are seeking an enthusiastic and engaging teacher to be part of the thriving English department at Helena Romanes School. The English department consists of passionate subject specialists who have a wealth of expertise in different aspects of teaching and learning. This post would be suitable for either an ECT or an experienced colleague. There is a full time position available, but a part time role would be considered for the right candidate.

The successful candidate will be highly motivated and committed to delivering high quality lessons to promote the best outcomes for students. The English faculty also consists of Media and there may be the opportunity to teach this as a second subject. There are development opportunities within the departments and the possibility of a TLR.

The English department delivers a challenging curriculum to stretch our able students but teachers are adept at ensuring appropriate adaptations are made for students of all abilities and needs. The department runs frequent theatre trips and promotes reading for pleasure across the school through various initiatives such as book swaps and holiday reading challenges.

It is an exciting time to join Helena Romanes School as we have a new building commissioned by the DofE and the prospect of moving into state-of-the-art new premises is on the horizon. The primary phase is scheduled to move in the academic year 2025-26 with the secondary phase not long afterwards.
