TEACHER OF ENGLISH

This is an established post
MPS (ECT's welcome to apply)
Full Time (1FTE)
To start September 2024

We seek an excellent Teacher of English to join the successful and supportive English Department within our Communications Faculty.

We are looking for:

- An excellent subject specialist who can teach across the full age range (applications will be considered from MPS and Early Career Teachers).
- Commitment to ensuring that students maximise every opportunity to achieve academically and personally.
- A reflective and innovative practitioner with a desire to work collaboratively and to share best practice.
- An inspirational teacher who can build positive relationships with students to motivate them to achieve to their potential.

We can offer:

- The opportunity to work as part of a successful and supportive team.
- A coaching culture which is a key focus for bespoke staff development.
- Involvement in the Red Kite Teaching School Alliance which enables us to work collaboratively and share best practice with other providers and supports professional development.
- Enthusiastic students who are keen to make best progress.
- A vibrant, supportive community which engenders a real sense of belonging.

Malton School is a high achieving and over-subscribed 11 to 18 school situated between York and the North York Moors National Park.

The school has an iPad for Learning scheme and is an Apple Distinguished School (ADS). Every member of staff has an iPad as well as a laptop. All students have an iPad. This is an exciting time as the school is growing and moving from strength to strength.
