The Blue Coat School

Although this post is offered initially on a one-year temporary basis, it does come with the potential to secure a permanent post in the future. Blue Coat plays a significant role in teacher development across the Trust, which means that opportunities often arise for staff.

In previous years, colleagues appointed into temporary posts at Blue Coat have either secured a permanent role within the school as vacancies became available or progressed into permanent posts at other secondary schools within the Trust. This has been made possible by the high-quality training and professional development they received during their time at our school.

Whilst this is only a fixed term vacancy, the professional development the successful candidate will receive and be able to evidence on their CV will put them in a very strong position moving forward. This post should be just as attractive for those currently not in post to secure one as it is for those who are potentially looking for a fresh start and a new challenge.

English is a popular and valued subject at Blue Coat. The successful candidate will be joining a large, knowledgeable, experienced, and professional department and in this environment, they will be able to grow and develop as a professional as they are supported to teach across Key Stage 3, 4 & 5.

Our department of 11 teachers are all English specialists which provides the platform for thoughtful, intelligent, inquisitive and professional dialogue about what makes exceptional English teaching.

Our curriculum is underpinned by a consistent pedagogy that understands how pupils learn and a rigorous approach to building character and resilience. Our curriculum is also designed to inspire and enthuse our young people. Designated curriculum time (in addition to PPA) is also provided to the English Department once a fortnight to allow them to discuss and shape the curriculum and how best to deliver it. Our English staff report that they get just as much fulfilment, nourishment and professional development from these conversations, as our young people do as they progress through the curriculum.

The successful candidate will teach English across Key Stage 3 and 4 and there is also the opportunity to teach at Key Stage 5. We have enough strength and depth within our department to shape the teaching commitment of the successful candidate to their strengths. This may mean that they teach across all three Key Stages immediately or it may be that this is something that they aspire to in the future with guidance and support.

This role is suited to teachers at all stages of their career - those who are just starting out or those who seek further professional development, opportunities and growth in an outstanding school and an exceptional English Department.

The successful candidate will be joining a knowledgeable, experienced, tight-knit and professional department and will be able to grow and develop as a professional, as they are supported to teach across Key Stage 3, 4 and 5.

The Blue Coat School

In brief we are looking for:

- A teacher committed to ambition, excellence and community who will work with staff across the school to drive the growth and development of The Blue Coat School as an outstanding provider for our young people.
- An inspiring informed educationalist with a clear understanding of what makes outstanding educational provision within English.
- Someone who will do their utmost to ensure that all of our young people leave with a love and passion for English that they will take with them into their adult lives.
- Someone who will inspire pupils and the staff they work with, and build strong relationships with our parents, carers and community partners.

This is an exciting and challenging role. It is a post for a dedicated, energetic and creative professional. The demands will be varied, interesting and developmental.
