

Teacher of English & Media Studies
Person Specification

	Essential	Preferable
Good honours degree or equivalent and qualified teacher status (QTS)	*
Ability to teach throughout the age range up to and including A level	*
Experience of planning, delivering and evaluating successful lessons	*
Personal commitment to professional development	*
Ability to work co-operatively with others and to lead development	*
Management skills that are appropriate to the post being applied for	*
Experience of using ICT for at least one (and preferably both) of teaching and administrative work		*
Willingness to contribute towards the school's extra-curricular programme	*
Understanding of the school's Christian ethos (whatever the candidate's own personal beliefs)	*

We will also seek confirmation of the candidate's record of attendance, health and punctuality.

In addition to the candidate's ability to perform the duties of the post, the interview will also explore issues relating to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children including:

- motivation to work with children and young people
- ability to form and maintain appropriate relationships and personal boundaries with children and young people
- emotional resilience in working with challenging behaviours
- attitudes to use of authority and maintaining discipline

If an applicant is short-listed any relevant issues arising from his or her reference will be taken up at interview.