Teacher of English – 0.4FTE

Required for January 2027

This permanent post is suitable for both experienced and early career teachers

Closing Date: Monday 12th October 2026

Based on the quality and quantity of applications received, we reserve the right to interview and appoint before the closing date. Therefore, early applications are encouraged and recommended.

September 2026

Dear Applicant

Thank you for your interest in the Teacher of English post at Haberdashers' Abraham Darby.

We have an excellent opportunity for an inspirational, enthusiastic, and committed teacher of English to join us from January 2027 (ideally – but an Easter start date will be considered). This is permanent part-time post (0.4 FTE) and is suitable for both experienced teachers and ECTs. The aptitude to demonstrate excellent subject knowledge and to consistently teach stimulating and innovative lessons is essential.

We are looking for someone who is highly motivated who wants to make a difference to the education of our students and who has the drive and enthusiasm to provide a high quality and challenging learning experience for our students, whilst also ensuring a supportive and encouraging environment.

We welcome applications from forward-looking colleagues who relish sharing their skills and ideas, and who want the chance to make their mark in helping take the department and the Academy to the next level.

Haberdashers' Abraham Darby is a vibrant, 11-18 mixed school which opened in September 2008 and moved into a brand-new state of the art building in the summer of 2012 with a superb leisure complex adjacent to the school building. We are a member of the Haberdashers' West Midlands Academies Trust; a thriving partnership with Haberdashers' Adams school (11-18) and Haberdashers' Castle House school (0-11) both located in Newport, Shropshire. A focus on traditional values and high expectations is resulting in rapidly rising standards and popularity as a school of first choice. We are located within a short distance from the picturesque River Severn and Ironbridge Gorge, not far from Telford and Shrewsbury, with good railway, road and motorway links to both the M6 and M54.

I have included a number of pieces of information in this candidate pack that I hope you will find helpful in making an application. If you require further information about Haberdashers' Abraham Darby this can be gained from our website: www.haberdashersabrahamdarby.co.uk

In making your application, please submit:

1. The completed teaching application form,
2. A brief Curriculum Vitae (optional),
3. A supporting letter/statement describing:
 - a. the skills and experiences you would bring to this post,
 - b. how you would contribute to raising achievement, and
 - c. the contribution you would want to make to the 'wider life' of the Academy.

I look forward to receiving your completed application by 3.00pm on Monday 12th October. Applications should be returned electronically to the HR Manager, via email: deborah.tudor@taw.org.uk. We do reserve the right to close this advertisement early if we receive and interview suitable applicants before the closing date; therefore early applications are encouraged and recommended.

If you wish to contact us for an informal discussion, would like to know more about the post offered or wish to have a look around, please arrange this by contacting the Head of English, Michael Duffield, via email michael.duffield@taw.org.uk

Yours faithfully

Mrs J Edgar
Principal

TEACHER OF ENGLISH MPS – UPS (suitable for ECTs)

Haberdashers' Abraham Darby is fully committed to the delivery of high-quality teaching and learning which maximises engagement, enjoyment and achievement for every pupil. We offer our pupils a variety of pathways to ensure that each pupil has an individualised curriculum with the ability to achieve their potential.

We are seeking to appoint a committed and enthusiastic part-time English teacher to join the existing English team who can deliver the English curriculum across KS3 and KS4 to all ability levels (the ability and desire to teach KS5 would be most welcome). If you are passionate that pupils should access a rich English curriculum up to Key Stage 5, enjoy meaningful enrichment and want opportunities to think

We believe that every single child who joins us has the potential to be knowledgeable, articulate and successful. It's important this resonates with all candidates. Equally important is subject expertise, which is critical to support strong curriculum planning and implementation. We are looking for someone who is able to enthuse, motivate and inspire children, generating a love for learning. The aptitude to demonstrate excellent subject knowledge and to consistently teach inspirational and innovative lessons is essential. Good teamwork, high standards and a capacity for hard work will be at the core of the successfully appointed person.

THE ENGLISH DEPARTMENT

The English department consists of a strong team of dedicated and flexible specialists who work closely and collaboratively in all matters concerning the curriculum and school life.

As such, we have worked together to develop a 'mastery'-based curriculum that is broad, balanced, challenging and relevant, and which is constantly reviewed in the light of Local and National needs and statutory requirements. Our curriculum also aims to promote the emotional, social, moral and personal development of each individual student.

Each unit sets out clear aims and includes learning outcomes, teacher's notes, outline teaching approaches, use of ICT and differentiated activities to cater for varied learning styles. A wide range of resources are deployed to enhance teaching, including use of the IWB. All English classrooms are furnished with interactive whiteboards and the department continues its work on developing a bank of resources that are stored electronically.

In Key Stage 3, we use 'English Mastery', a fully-resourced, research-led curriculum that we believe will equip our students with the knowledge and skills they need to make excellent progress throughout their journey here. All pupils in Years 10 and 11 are currently following the AQA specification for English Language and English Literature.

In both Key Stages, there is a structured Assessment for Learning system that involves all pupils. One of the many strengths of the department lies in its organisation and structure. Its success lies in the commitment of the staff to these systems.

At Key Stage 5, we offer the AQA A Level English Literature course.

The English department is committed to raising achievement and has implemented a range of strategies to facilitate this. In addition to our subject-based work, as a department we also make a significant contribution to the extra-curricular life of the school. We arrange a number of theatre trips, workshops and visits.

In the English department at Haberdashers' Abraham Darby, every member of staff is expected to work as an active team member, constantly striving to raise expectations and standards, and to implement the curriculum and departmental policies with zeal and commitment.

Our aim in the English department is to continue to raise standards of attainment. We have a number of strategies in place which we hope will have a positive impact on achievement and this will continue to be one of our development projects.

PERSON SPECIFICATION

The post is suitable for experienced teachers and ECTs. We welcome applications from forward-looking colleagues who relish sharing their skills and ideas and who want the chance to make their mark in helping to take the department and the Academy to the next level.

You will be a knowledgeable, inspirational, engaging, amiable and innovative teacher. You will set high standards and have high expectations for your pupils and be willing to contribute to the wider life of the school. In return, we offer extensive CPD and opportunities to progress.

Our pupils are delightful; we are minutes away from Ironbridge Gorge and some beautiful countryside and we would love to have you on our team. We look forward to receiving your application

We are looking for a person who:

- Has a real passion for English.
- Can deliver the English curriculum across KS3 and KS4 to all ability levels (the ability and desire to teach KS5 would be most welcome).
- Can build positive and productive working relationships with staff, pupils and parents.
- Can deliver a creative and innovative approach to teaching and is able to deliver outstanding teaching and learning (or potential to do so).
- Can implement online learning tools within lessons where necessary to meet the diverse needs of learners.
- Show organisation and the ability to complete necessary assessment documentation and information needed for record keeping.
- Has a proven track record of success as a teacher, as exemplified by good examination results; for ECTs evidence should consist of an outstanding placement reference, particularly about the standard of teaching and learning.

- Is committed to making learning a challenging, exciting and worthwhile activity for our youngsters.
- Enjoys working with young people, has high expectations and can unlock potential.
- Is ambitious and will welcome professional development opportunities.
- Shows commitment, enthusiasm, and flexibility in their approach to the subject.
- Has the ability to stay positive and meet deadlines even when working under pressure.
- Has a good sense of humour!

Our pupils are delightful; we are minutes away from Ironbridge Gorge and some beautiful countryside and we'd love to have you on our team.

We look forward to receiving your application soon.

Information on Haberdashers' Abraham Darby

History of the school: Abraham Darby Academy opened on 1st September 2008 replacing the predecessor Abraham Darby School for the Performing Arts. The Academy was the 'sample project' in Telford & Wrekin's 'Building Schools for the Future' programme. Having been based in the existing school buildings during the construction phase of the project, the Academy moved into its new state of the art, technology rich accommodation in July 2012. It provides 1,100 places, 900 for pupils aged 11-16 (PAN of 180 in each year group) and 200 in the Sixth Form and sits at the centre of the Abraham Darby Learning Community, which also includes Woodlands Primary School and a Leisure Centre. Abraham Darby Academy changed its name to Haberdashers' Abraham Darby in 2017.

Trust and Sponsor: Haberdashers' Abraham Darby is sponsored by the Worshipful Company of Haberdashers' and is a member of the Haberdashers' West Midlands Academies Trust, which includes Haberdashers' Adams, a selective state grammar school, and Haberdashers' Castle House School, an independent preparatory school, both located in Newport, Shropshire. There is one Board, chaired by the Chair of Governors, with several committees. Each school has a separate local governing body.

Ethos: We are passionate about learning in its widest sense. Our mission is 'Success for All'. We recognise that every individual is unique and we strive to unlock their potential, with a 'no excuses' culture and by inspiring our pupils and our staff to be the best version of themselves. We have very clear values for all members of our learning community. "Our community, our school, this is who we ARE" -

Aspiration: We have a dream or goal we are aiming for. Respect: We listen to and learn from others. We are for one another and our community. Excellence: We work hard to be the very best we can be.

House System: Our House system is the lifeblood of the Academy. It fosters competition, participation, personal development, belonging and student leadership. Each member of staff also belongs to a House. Throughout the year we enjoy all school inter-house competitions in rugby, netball, cross country, swimming and the Arts.

Extra-Curricular: The Abraham Darby music department has a very successful music tradition, which goes back well over 40 years and has ensured that the Academy has become one of the country's leading education establishments for musical opportunity for its students. It has a high reputation within the youth music world. Both the Academy's Showband and Jazz Band have performed regularly in the Schools Music for Youth Proms at the Royal Albert Hall and the Showband is the highest ranked school wind band in the UK. We also place considerable emphasis on Sport: we are one of the few state schools in the country that has an extensive rugby and netball Saturday fixtures list. We offer 10% of our PAN each year to musical or sporting aptitude places.

The education of the 'whole' child is a priority and has resulted in the development of an extensive informal curriculum. There is a substantial range of curriculum enrichment and extra-curricular experiences with which pupils are actively encouraged to engage. It is an expectation that all members of staff contribute to this programme.

The Haberdashers' Company – an introduction

Background

The Haberdashers' Company is one of the Great Twelve Livery Companies and has a long history closely connected to the development of the City of London. We are a welcoming and inclusive organisation with a strong social purpose. We are proud of our roots, traditions and values that go back centuries, but equally, we are a modern organisation committed to a vibrant and diverse future. We harness the resources of the Haberdashers' community to empower young people from every background and enable them to flourish.

Our schools

The Haberdashers' family of schools is made up of eighteen schools, structured in four devolved groups – Haberdashers' Academy Trust South, Haberdashers' West Midlands Academy Trust, Haberdashers' Elstree Schools and Haberdashers' Monmouth Schools. We are proud to include schools of all types and sizes within our family of schools – from a brand new, state academy like Haberdashers' Borough Academy, opened in 2019, or a centuries' old independent boarding school, like Haberdashers' Monmouth, founded in 1614. The relationship with Haberdashers supports the schools: financially through endowment funding, through providing governors and trustees from the Company membership and through the Haberdashers' Advantage programme.

The concept of Haberdashers' Advantage identifies the added benefit that will be felt by pupils at our schools. Our philosophy is that there is more to quality education than academic performance, whilst recognising that such outcomes are a critical component. We give tangible support to our schools as they strive to provide our students with character, values and the ability to develop life and workplace skills; helping to shape the best possible outcome for their futures.

Haberdashers' Advantage Programme

Character

These activities provide character, soft skill development and cultural capital for pupils. Current initiatives are Year 7 historical educational visits to the Hall, art/music/subject competitions, sports/music festivals and leadership skills training opportunities for students.

Futures

This programme delivers careers and employability initiatives for pupils. Current projects are primarily focused at sixth form pupils and include entrepreneur competitions and regular careers conferences with high-level professionals.

Working together

This programme covers collaboration and professional development for staff, leaders and governors. Current areas of focus are leadership development, mental health and educational technology.

JOB DESCRIPTION – Subject Teacher

The post holder will undertake professional duties in accordance with the Teachers' Pay and Conditions document, the DfE National Teachers' Standards, and as directed by the Principal with the content of the Job Description below.

Haberdashers' Abraham Darby is fully committed to the delivery of high quality teaching and learning which promotes engagement, enjoyment and achievement for each pupil in every subject. We offer our pupils a variety of pathways to ensure that each pupil has an individualised curriculum with the ability to achieve their potential.

Core Purpose:

To meet and set high professional standards in respect of:

- Relationships with young people
- Communicating and working with others
- Dress, conduct, attendance and punctuality
- Knowledge and understanding
- Skills to achieve consistent high quality learning and teaching across the Academy which inspire, motivate and challenge pupils.

Reporting to:

You will report to the Head of Department/Curriculum Leader and ultimately to the Principal

Expectations of a Subject Teacher:

- Ensure all lessons are effectively planned to provide challenge and are adapted to meet the strengths and needs of each child in your groups.
- Demonstrate good subject and curriculum knowledge.
- Ensure that the structure, organisation and resources used in each lesson are appropriate.
- Promote good progress and outcomes by pupils. Scaffold and support every learner to achieve and make progress.
- Meet and greet children as they arrive at your lesson and issue reminders about uniform as pupils arrive.
- Seat children according to your seating plan and remind them about books and equipment on the desk as they sit down.
- Take an electronic Register within the first 10 minutes of the lesson and submit it. Any problems with SIMS then a paper register should be completed and sent to the relevant Year Team.
- Manage behaviour effectively to ensure a good and safe learning environment. Challenge and ensure that unacceptable behaviour is dealt according to Academy's policies and discuss strategies to deal with repeat offenders with your Curriculum Leader/Head of Department.
- Set homework according to the homework guidelines.
- Mark pupils' work and assess progress during lessons and at regular intervals in line with Department and Academy policy. Provide regular feedback (both orally and through accurate marking) to pupils on their potential, standards currently achieved and how to improve.
- Make accurate and productive use of assessment. Monitor the progress of pupils in your group to check that they are achieving the standards expected. Record findings on SIMS as required and incorporate results into your planning to secure further progress. Be fully aware of all pupils in your groups/sub-groups and performance progression.

- Contribute to departmental reviews of progress. Highlight any concerns with pupils, parents and your Curriculum Leader. Contribute to intervention programmes to address underperformance.
- Be aware of and conform to the data protection regulations (GDPR) to protect the personal data of pupils.
- Fulfil wider professional responsibilities. Make a positive contribution to the wider life and ethos of the Academy,
- Follow the academy wide Teaching & Learning strategies including; Do Now, I do, we do, you do, STRAW, SLANT, Choral Response, Mini whiteboards and Use of Visualisers.

To meet the admin requirements of a Teacher by:

- Working to published timescales for: entering grades into SIMS, writing reports, marking pupils' work and attending department meetings, parents' evenings, publications and events.
- Carrying out procedures to satisfy and comply with the Academy's policies and practices.
- Carrying out weekly duties as defined on the duty rota.

To manage one's own performance and enhance the working atmosphere and ethos in the Academy by:

- Applying Academy policies and practices consistently.
- Working as a team member, identifying opportunities for working with colleagues and sharing development of good practice.
- Setting an example to pupils in work ethic, conduct, dress, punctuality and attendance.
- Taking responsibility for one's own professional development, setting objectives for improvement and keeping up to date in subject expertise and teaching skills.
- Maintaining effective working relationships with teaching and support staff.
- Having high expectations and commitment to the wider life of the Academy.

To be an effective Mentor to a group of pupils by:

- Taking the Register and following up any unexplained absences or lates.
- Checking uniform and ensuring pupils have planners and basic equipment.
- Mentoring them according to the Academy scheduled programme of activities.
- Giving out important messages daily and act upon any requests from staff.
- Collecting any notes, letters, reply slips from parents and distributing or acting on them.
- Checking and signing the pupils' planners every week.
- Inputting information into SIMS about each of your pupils at reporting times.

Upper Pay Scale Teachers – Teachers at UPS 1, 2 or 3 will:

- Demonstrate contributions that are highly competent, substantial and sustained.
- Provide a model of high-quality professional practice.
- Make a distinctive contribution to the department compared to MPS teachers.
- Consistently provide at least a good quality of teaching and learning for students with potential to develop outstanding practice.
- Make a significant contribution to the improvement of work of the academy.

General Expectations of all staff

- Be aware of and comply with all the Academy and Trust's policies and procedures especially relating to child protection, health and safety, security, confidentiality and data protection, and also reporting all concerns to an appropriate person.
- Committed to the safeguarding of young people and use CPOMS to record and action any concerns raised.
- Adhere to the policy that Haberdashers' Abraham Darby is a designated no smoking/vaping workplace. Therefore no smoking or vaping should take place on or in the Academy premises and its environment / surroundings.
- Staff ID badges should always be worn and visible and it is a mandatory requirement that all staff use the sign in app system on a daily basis.
- Maintain high professional standards of attendance, punctuality, appearance, conduct and develop positive courteous relationships with parents/carers.

- Develop and maintain professional and effective working relationships with all colleagues.
- To engage with pupils in a courteous, positive, caring and responsive manner. Do not use innuendo, make comments that may be construed or make jokes at the expense of pupils. Avoid making any physical contact with pupils, unless their safety is at risk.
- Safeguard yourself as well as the pupils: when speaking to a pupil or pupils in a room, always have the door open and the blinds up and sit where you and the pupils are visible from the corridor.
- To present oneself in a professional way that is consistent with the values and expectations of the Trust and Academy.
- Attending and participating in relevant meetings and training as and when required (including statutory training, safeguarding/child protection updates). These may be outside of your normal working hours.
- Support staff are required to carry out a lunch duty as defined on the lunch duty rota (this is not in place of your usual lunch break entitlement for that day)
- Be aware of and support to ensure equal opportunities for all. Understand, comply with and promote equalities in own work; to undertake appropriate training, and challenge racism, prejudice and discrimination.
- Recognise own strengths and areas of expertise and use these to advise and support others. Participate in training, meetings and other learning activities to keep up to date with developments relating to your area.
- Undertake personal and professional development and commitment in conjunction with the Academy's Performance Appraisal Review process.
- Support and contribute to the overall ethos, work, aims and vision of the Academy and Trust.
- You are expected to treat all information acquired through your employment, both formally and informally, in strict confidence.
- Act with integrity, honesty, loyalty and fairness to safeguard the assets, financial integrity and reputation of the school.
- Comply with any reasonable request from your line manager to undertake work of a similar level that is not specified in this job description.
- To undertake other duties as determined by the Principal, CEO and/or Governors that are commensurate with the designation and grading of the post and within the evolving policies of the Trust.

Any breach of these expectations will be handled under the Trust's Staff Disciplinary procedures.

Safeguarding Statement

The Academy is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and young people and expects all staff and volunteers to share this commitment.

All teachers and support staff are accountable for the way in which they exercise authority, manage risk, use resources and protect pupils from discrimination and avoidable harm. All staff, whether paid or voluntary, have a duty to keep young people safe and to protect them from physical and emotional harm. When an individual accepts a role that involves working with children and young people they need to understand and acknowledge that the responsibilities and trust are inherent in that role.

An Enhanced DBS check (including a check of the children's barred list) will be carried out prior to employment along with thorough safer recruitment pre-employment checks (including an on-line search for all shortlisted candidates and all shortlisted candidates are asked to complete a criminal self-disclosure form prior to interview). For existing staff, the DBS is renewed every 5 years, and all staff are expected to sign an annual Safeguarding Declaration Form. We hold regular statutory Child Protection training which all staff are required to attend, these may be outside of your normal working hours.

Positive Mental Health and Well-being – Whole School Approach

Haberdashers' Abraham Darby aims to promote a whole-school positive approach to mental health and well-being for every member of staff and student; it is a fundamental to our values, mission and culture. We are a school that helps children flourish, learn and succeed by providing opportunities for them, and the adults around them, to develop the strengths and coping skills that underpin resilience. The Academy's Mental Health and Well-being policy is available via the website.

This job description describes the way the post holder is expected and required to perform and complete particular duties as set out in the foregoing paragraphs. Whilst every effort has been made to explain the main duties and responsibilities of the post, this job description may not necessarily be a comprehensive definition of the post. Staff are expected to comply with any reasonable request from their line manager and/or Principal/member of the senior leadership team to undertake work of a similar level that it is not included in this job description. This job description will be reviewed on a regular basis and it may be subject to modification or amendment at any time by the Principal and/or line manager, and may form part of the appraisal process.

THE GENERAL DATA PROTECTION ACT 2018

The information or data which you have supplied on the application form will be processed and held on computer and also on your personal records if you are appointed.

The data may be processed by the Haberdashers' West Midlands Academies Trust and Haberdashers' Abraham Darby for the purposes of equality monitoring, compiling statistics and for the keeping of other employment records.

By signing and returning this application form you will be deemed to be giving your explicit consent to processing of data contained or referred to on it, including any information which may be considered to be sensitive personal data.

EQUAL OPPORTUNITIES POLICY

COMMITMENT TO EQUAL OPPORTUNITIES

The Haberdashers' West Midlands Academies Trust and Haberdashers' Abraham Darby are committed to equality of opportunity in all aspects of their activities. We recognise that people suffer discrimination, disadvantage and exclusion, both in employment and in the delivery of services, for many reasons including:

- race
- sex
- sexual orientation
- gender re-assignment
- religion or belief
- disability
- pregnancy or maternity

We are committed to combating inequality and striving to ensure that all people in all parts of the community are treated fairly. Age, marriage and civil partnership are not protected characteristics for the schools' provision but do apply to staff.

EQUALITY IN EMPLOYMENT

It is the Trust and Academy's policy that all of its employees, and those who apply for employment, will be treated with equal fairness, respect and dignity.

We will:

- Publicise, by this charter, our commitment to equality to all of our employees and within the community at large.
- Encourage job applications from all sections of the community and ensure that only relevant and justifiable factors are taken into account in making appointments
- Make available appropriate training for employees so that they can both understand and actively promote equal opportunities policies and, recommend that everyone who takes part in the recruitment and selection process will first receive the necessary training.
- Ensure that existing and future HR policies and conditions of service are applied fairly to all employees and are such that they can both promote equality of opportunity and seek to remove obstacles to its achievement.
- Recommend that applicants with disabilities who meet the essential requirements of the post are interviewed, and do everything reasonably practical to adapt jobs and premises to meet the needs of people with disabilities.
- Measure the effectiveness of our policies by regular monitoring of both existing employees and of job applicants.

EQUAL OPPORTUNITY MONITORING

So that we can measure the effectiveness of this charter, we need to collect information about our job applicants. Therefore please fully complete and return the Monitoring Form attached to the application form.

- When your application is received the Monitoring Form will be removed before the form goes to those involved in shortlisting for interviews.
- Those involved in shortlisting and interview will not know what information is on the Monitoring Form.

Positive Mental Health – Whole School Approach

Haberdashers' Abraham Darby aims to promote a whole-school positive approach to mental health and well-being for every member of staff and student; it is a fundamental to our values, mission and culture. We are a school that helps children flourish, learn and succeed by providing opportunities for them, and the adults around them, to develop the strengths and coping skills that underpin resilience.

ESSENTIAL ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

FOR POSTS WHICH INVOLVE WORKING WITH CHILDREN, YOUNG PEOPLE

AND/OR VULNERABLE ADULTS

The post for which you are applying will involve working with children, young people and/or vulnerable adults. In order to ensure the safety of children and vulnerable adults, your application will be subject to rigorous pre-employment checks.

Please read this information carefully.

1. The references you have offered will be taken up prior to interview without seeking further permission from you. We also reserve the right to contact any other previous employer for a reference.
2. We will also take into consideration relevant information received from any source. This may include information held by Telford & Wrekin Council, for example in Social Care or Education, and information received from other external authorities or bodies.
3. You will be required to provide proof of any educational qualifications or memberships of professional bodies that are stated in your application form.
4. You will be asked to submit original proof of identification, including photo ID, such as a birth certificate, National Insurance number, passport or driving licence. You will also be asked to submit all marriage certificates in cases where you have changed your name, and previous address details.
5. If you are successfully shortlisted for interview, you will be asked to complete and return a criminal self-disclosure form before the date of your interview. You will be asked to personally sign the criminal self-disclosure form and your application form at interview.
6. As per the new KCSIE guidance, we also conduct online searches on all shortlisted candidates as part of our due diligence checks.
7. You will have to complete a medical questionnaire and may be required to meet with our Occupational Health physician if required.
8. You may be subject to a probationary period. Failure to successfully complete a probationary period may lead to a further probationary period or dismissal.

References

In order to comply with legal and regulatory requirements, your named referees, from whom we collect personal data such as name, role, commencement and termination dates of employment and general indication of your performance, will be used to:

- Assess your skills, qualifications and suitability for the role
- Carry out background and reference checks, where applicable
- Comply with legal or regulatory requirements

In line with our GDPR duties and responsibilities, we have put in place appropriate security measures to prevent your personal information from being accidentally lost, used or accessed in an authorised way, altered or disclosed. In addition, we limit access to your personal information to those employees and other third parties who have a business need to know. They will only process your personal information on our instructions and they are subject to a duty of confidentiality. We have put in place procedures to deal with any suspected data security breach and will notify you and any applicable regulator of a suspected breach where we are legally required to do so.

By completing and signing the application form, you are consenting to the named referees to release a written and/or verbal reference to ourselves.

For further information, we refer you to our Recruitment Privacy Policy, which is available from our website.

DISCLOSURE AND BARRING SERVICE (DBS) AND RECRUITMENT CHECKS

The academy is legally obligated to process an Enhanced Disclosure and Barring Service (DBS) check before making appointments. The DBS check will reveal both spent and unspent convictions, cautions, reprimands and final warnings, and any other information held by the local police that is considered relevant to the role. Any information that is 'protected' under the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974 (Exceptions) Order 1975

(2013 and 2022) will not appear on a DBS certificate. For posts in regulated activity, the DBS check will include a barred list check. It is an offence to seek employment in regulated activity if you are on a barred list.

The DBS will send you the original DBS certificate and inform Haberdashers' Abraham Darby of the result of their search. This information will enable the Principal to make his decision on possible employment. You are required to show us, your employer, the original DBS certificate prior to your employment start date. This information is stored on our Single Central Register (SCR).

We undertake to discuss any matter revealed in a Disclosure with the person seeking the position before withdrawing a conditional offer of employment.

If you do take up employment it is necessary for you to inform the Principal and HR Manager of any cautions, bind overs or convictions you sustain during the subsequent course of your employment. Failure to do so will lead to dismissal.

For all employees of Haberdashers' Abraham Darby, DBS checks will be renewed every 5 years and all staff are expected to sign an annual Disqualification Safeguarding Declaration Form.

CRIMINAL CONVICTIONS

The amendments to the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974 (Exceptions) Order 175 (2013 and 2022) provides that when applying for certain jobs and activities, certain convictions and cautions are considered 'protected'. This means that they do not need to be disclosed to employers, and if they are disclosed, employers cannot take them into account.

Should you be shortlisted for interview, you will be asked to declare on a separate form whether you have any convictions or cautions that are not 'protected' in line with this legislation. Further information on the filtering of these cautions and convictions can be found in the DBS filtering guide

RIGHT TO WORK IN THE UK

The academy will require you to provide evidence of your right to work in the UK in accordance with the Immigration, Asylum and Nationality Action 2006. By signing the application form you agree to provide such evidence when requested.

IMPORTANT

WE WILL REPORT ALL PERSONS TO THE RELEVANT AUTHORITIES WHO ATTEMPT TO OBTAIN EMPLOYMENT WHILST THEY ARE DISQUALIFIED FROM WORKING WITH CHILDREN, YOUNG PEOPLE AND/OR VULNERABLE ADULTS.

THE RECRUITMENT PROCESS

WHAT WILL HAPPEN NEXT?

If you are successfully shortlisted for interview, we will contact you on or just after the closing date with details of the interview process and the date of interview. You will be asked to complete and return a criminal self-disclosure form before the date of your interview.

You will be asked to personally sign the criminal self-disclosure form and your application form at interview.

As per the new KCSIE guidance, we also conduct online searches on all shortlisted candidates as part of our due diligence checks.

You will be asked to bring with you to your interview your birth certificate AND some current form of photograph ID (i.e. passport / driving licence)

The Academy is an equal opportunities employer and makes every effort to treat all candidates fairly during the interview process. Therefore, please do not hesitate to contact the HR Manager if you have any access needs/special requirements that require any adjustments or adaptations so that we can arrange/take this into account before your interview.

If you are not shortlisted for interview, we endeavour to always reply individually to every applicant within 28 days of the closing date regardless of the number of applications received.

As a candidate applying for employment with Haberdashers' West Midlands Academies Trust and Haberdashers' Abraham Darby you can expect to be dealt with courteously, efficiently and fairly. If, at any stage of the recruitment process, you are unhappy with the way you are treated, or if you have any suggestions as to how we can do better, please do not hesitate to contact the HR Manager/PA to the Principal or the Principal direct.

If you require any help or have any questions about the recruitment process or the position you are applying for, please contact either the HR Manager/PA to the Principal, who will be more than happy to assist you.

If you would like to visit the Academy before the closing date or have an informal discussion with the Principal, please arrange this via the HR Manager/PA to the Principal via email (deborah.tudor@taw.org.uk) or telephone (01952 386000)

Whatever the outcome of your application, thank you for the interest you have shown in working for Haberdashers' West Midlands Academies Trust and Haberdashers' Abraham Darby.

Good luck with your application!
