Dear Applicant

Thank you for expressing an interest in the position of Teacher of English (part-time/full-time applications considered) at The King's School.

The King's School was founded by Henry VIII in 1545 and therefore the school has a long and proud tradition of educating young people in Ottery St Mary and the surrounding area. The school has a strong reputation that is based on high academic performance and an inclusive ethos, ensuring that students of all backgrounds and abilities succeed. The school is an 11-18 comprehensive school with approximately 1110 students on roll and has been oversubscribed for many years. We have a thriving Sixth Form which continues to perform very well. We have a broad curriculum offer pre- and post-16; this allows students to select subjects they are passionate about and offers a wide range of opportunities for students and staff. There is a rolling programme of investment in the school site and, as a result, we have a well-resourced and pleasant environment for the whole school community to enjoy.

The experiences of our students reflect our core purpose of 'Achievement for All'. Students are taught in mixed ability classes in all subject areas (except mathematics), and we believe that this approach supports the development of academic success as well as the strong sense of community and mutual support that is present in the school. We provide extension opportunities for the most able students and continue to see many of them progressing to the best universities and apprenticeships in the UK. We also have an award-winning Skills for Learning team that works alongside classroom teachers, ensuring that those students with additional learning needs are well catered for. Students of all abilities at the school make strong progress during their time with us.

Exam results only give a narrow view of the success of a school. Therefore, The King's School places a strong emphasis on personal, as well as academic, outcomes. We provide outstanding pastoral care, and a wide range of enrichment opportunities are available to all students. The house system is an integral part of school life and is reflected in our smart uniform. Students and staff are very proud of their house associations, and this provides a platform for a wide range of house competitions and leadership opportunities. We have a very strong extra-curricular offer which includes numerous trips and visits, school productions, STEM activities, dance performances and sporting activities to name but a few. Student voice is also strong at the school and the School Parliament and Prefects play a very active part in school life.

The school converted to an academy in 2011 and we maintain very strong relationships with our local primary and secondary schools. We continue to work in partnership with others to ensure that students are well supported, and staff have access to high-quality professional development. As a result, there are a number of staff who are actively engaged in supporting other schools, training teachers, and undertaking nationally accredited CPD such as those offered on the NPQ programmes. We also have an exciting INSET programme which is based around the school's core purpose and draws on student voice, the latest evidence, and the sharing of good practice.

English is taught in fully mixed ability classes (as are all subjects in the school except mathematics) therefore the ability to differentiate effectively is essential. Our GCSE and A Level results are consistently strong: in English Language, 87% of students achieved 4+ last year, 70% 5+, and 29% 7+. In English Literature, the results were as follows: 4+ 85%, 5+ 63%, and 7+ 25%. We teach the AQA syllabus at GCSE.

The English team works extremely well together, sharing good practice with colleagues in a supportive and creative environment, but also leading initiatives across the school, such as in literacy, writing for different purposes and INSET on marking and feedback (which we consider to be essential to the progress of our students). Our English Teachers are not afraid to take risks, so we are looking for someone who can be creative, dynamic and who is able to communicate their passion for the subject to the whole range of students. We are looking for a talented classroom practitioner who can make a contribution to GCSE and possibly A Level. An ability to contribute to the delivery of Drama would be an advantage but not essential. We would also like someone who can communicate an enthusiasm and depth of subject knowledge, using a student-centred approach. The candidate should be organised, confident in assessment for learning and, above all, someone who will form positive relationships with the students they teach.

This post is suitable for an ECT who wishes to complete their induction in a high performing school, or a more experienced teacher. Very importantly, we wish to appoint someone who works well in a team, is flexible, adaptable and can work under pressure without losing their all-important sense of humour.

We have lively and enthusiastic staff, a number of whom have worked at The King's School for many years. We believe firmly that the most important asset of the school is its staff and we are keen to offer them opportunities to develop. The King's School is in a very fortunate position in that it is located in a beautiful part of the country. It has an excellent reputation in the area and consequently is always heavily oversubscribed for student places. Many of our staff chose to send their children to the school for their education and school's admission oversubscription criteria supports this.
