Dear Candidate

Thank you for considering this post. We are seeking to appoint a dynamic and enthusiastic English teacher who will compliment and add to a successful and supportive English & Performing Arts faculty to teach English across Key Stages 3 & 4 on a full-time or part-time contract from September 2024. Experience of teaching 'A' Level English, whilst desirable, is not essential. The right candidate will have the attributes to make a valid contribution to our school community and ensure our pupils make excellent progress.

Our School

Judged by Ofsted as Good in October 2023, Sir John Nelthorpe School is a fully inclusive mixed 11-19 voluntary controlled comprehensive school in the heart of North Lincolnshire.

We are looking for a colleague who:

- consistently models excellent practice and has pupils' achievement and progress at the forefront of their teaching
- is an outstanding English teacher across all key stages 3 & 4, or who has the potential and desire to become so
- wants an exciting opportunity to work in a vibrant organisation that makes a difference to our young people's lives
- can make a significant positive contribution to this strong and successful faculty, and to the whole school.

In return you will get:

- the opportunity to teach well-behaved and motivated pupils
- a professionally stimulating and supportive working environment.
- outstanding professional development with progression opportunities.
- a well-resourced and well managed faculty.

The post is suitable for both NQT's and experienced teachers, with excellent induction programmes available at all levels.

Application Process:

Applicants are requested to complete the standard North Lincolnshire Council application form. Please note we do not accept CV's. The deadline for receipt of applications is 9:00am on Sunday 19th May 2024.

This vacancy provides an excellent opportunity for a forward-thinking teacher of Geography with drive and commitment who is willing to play a key role in building on the success and development of all subject areas within the faculty to become the very best they can be. The person appointed will bring enthusiasm and fresh thinking to a successful team. I look forward to receiving your application.

Yours sincerely

Mr R Biglands
Headteacher
