Welcome to The Shared Learning Trust

Firstly, let me start by thanking you for taking the time to read our information pack and allowing us the opportunity to tell you more about The Shared Learning Trust.

I first began working for The Shared Learning Trust, as Principal of The Stockwood Park Academy in 2009. Since then, the trust has grown from strength to strength employing some 500 fantastic staff members who serve over 3,700 children within our communities. It is my privilege to be CEO of our family of schools and work with each Principal or Head of School to ensure the best possible education in their own Academy.

Our ethos is simple, to build a collaborative partnership of academies and schools that will provide exceptional educational provision, both in and outside the classroom for all our children. Our academies ensure students are supported, monitored and encouraged to experience will be challenging, rewarding and memorable. Students enjoy their time at our academies and give back to the wider local community. They are role models and young leaders, who contribute to the collegiate ethos with maturity.

Cathy Barr, CEO

We recruit people for attitude and train for skills

We aim to recruit outstanding people who have the right attitude. If you have a love for teaching and are passionate about seeing children succeed, we would love to hear from you!

Recruiting the right teachers and staff help us to achieve the goals we set for our children. We are always keen to hear from educators who are passionate about working for the schools and communities we serve. We would rather make no appointment than appoint someone who does not share the same positive ethos that runs through our Academies. For this reason, we try to clearly articulate our vision, values and expectations when putting together information for applicants.

We aim to recruit staff who

- are excited by their role and by the prospect of working with young people, even those who are less motivated;
- love the processes of learning and teaching and are keen to continually develop their own skills;
- recognise that teaching can be a demanding job but react positively to those demands rather than complaining;
- will subscribe to the ethos of the Trust and 'go the extra mile' in terms of time and commitment to get the very best from our young people;
- see break duty as an opportunity to talk to children;
- are quick to praise and slow to criticise; and are not afraid to admit to seeing themselves as potential leaders of the future.

I am conscious that this may be your first contact with our Academy Trust and first impressions are very important. I hope what you read; coupled with anything else you discover about us, inspires you to apply for this post.

With best wishes,

Cathy

THE CHALK
HILLS ACADEMY

About The Chalk Hills Academy

Providing the very best education for all our students is the simple goal for The Chalk Hills Academy. Whilst firmly rooted in traditional values, we have made our Academy a vibrant and exciting place with a positive ethos that runs throughout the Academy. We want our children to flourish and develop into decent, disciplined, well-educated and employable adults.

We have an innovative curriculum, which makes the transition from primary to secondary education an enriching and enjoyable experience and enables students to follow a personalised route to success. Ofsted at The Chalk Hills Academy

Leadership and Management

- Together with (the) leadership team and the trust (the Principal has) established high expectations for behaviour, teaching and achievement. Leaders have made sure that strategies are in place which have led to improvements in the quality of teaching, learning, assessment and the curriculum. The consequence of this improvement is that pupils of all ages are making much better progress than last year.

Behaviour of Students

- Leaders have high expectations for pupils' behaviour. Leaders work well with staff to ensure that the school is typically a calm, orderly and purposeful environment. Usually, pupils behave well around the school and in lessons. Leaders' work to support pupils with challenging behaviour has reaped some notable rewards.

Achievement of Students

- ...pupils of all ages are making much better progress than last year. For example, disadvantaged pupils have made more rapid progress so that the gap between their outcomes and those of others is negligible. The most able pupils are also making faster progress because of the quality of questioning and the activities they are presented with that stretch them to think more deeply.

Safety of Students

- Regular training helps ensure that staff are clear about their safeguarding duties. Leaders responsible for safeguarding make sure that suitable support is in place for pupils who might be vulnerable or at risk of harm. This includes working effectively with external agencies when needed. Secure procedures are in place for ensuring that pupils who attend alternative provision are kept safe.

Welfare of Students

- Leaders are working effectively to reduce the proportion of disadvantaged pupils and pupils who have special educational needs and/or disabilities who have poor attendance. Leaders keep a close eye on the attendance of these pupils and act quickly, when needed, to ensure that suitable support is in place. Consequently, fewer of these pupils now have a poor attendance record. Leaders recognise the importance of continuing this work to secure further improvements.

Teacher Testimonial

"Moving from Industry to Teaching was a daunting yet exciting experience; I joined Stockwood Park Academy as an instructor to see if teaching was for me and have never looked back! The seamless transition into education was exciting, demanding, and the best decision I made. Like many teachers at the school, my role has evolved, and I have been fortunate enough to work across the Trust in different positions. The Trust has provided me with multiple opportunities to grow and develop. I now work as an Assistant Principal at The Chalk Hills Academy, with a focus on The Teaching Trust, Admissions and Science. I feel extremely privileged to be working for an organisation that inspires learning, growth, confidence and creativity, and challenges students to rise to their full potential in a warm and caring environment."
