Permanent, Full time/Part Time, All Year Round

Salary: MPS/UPS

Start Date: September

Welcome from the CEO

Archway Learning Trust is a vibrant learning community where students are cared for, receive a high quality education and experience every opportunity to be successful.

School years are amongst the most important in our lives, helping us to develop the knowledge, skills and characteristics we need to succeed. At Archway Learning Trust, we are committed to giving every child the very best start that we can. We offer outstanding teaching and learning and exceptional personal support in an inclusive, faith based environment. I became a teacher because I believe in equal opportunities for everyone.

I also believe that every child has the right to an excellent education. Learning is at the heart of any good society and the opportunity to learn from teachers who are committed, enthusiastic and innovative is a right that all children should have.

Our mission is to help children to understand and believe in themselves, respect and care for others and to develop a wide understanding of faith, the world around them and their place within it. The determination of our youngsters to succeed, and the passion of our teachers to make a difference, makes me proud to be Chief Executive Officer of this diverse and dynamic family of Trust's.

About the Trust

Archway Learning Trust, previously Bluecoat Academies Trust was formed in April 2014 as a result of the very long and successful history of Bluecoat Academy. We recently welcomed three further secondary schools in Derby to the Trust and opened Bluecoat Trent Academy, a secondary Free School in Nottingham in September 2021.

The Trust comprises of Bluecoat Aspley Academy, Bluecoat Sixth Form, Bluecoat Wollaton Academy, Bluecoat Beechdale Academy, Bluecoat Primary Academy, The Nottingham Emmanuel School and Sixth Form, The Long Eaton School, Lees Brook Academy, Alvaston Moor Academy, Bluecoat Trent Academy and the Bluecoat SCITT Alliance (School Centred Initial Teacher Training).

Our aim as a Trust is to shine a spotlight nationally and internationally on our inclusive ethos so that more schools and academies can be encouraged to take up our approach to inclusive, enriching, knowledge based teaching, preparing young people for lifelong learning based firmly on our Christian principles.

The growth of the Trust is a truly exciting time for prospective candidates who are looking to further their careers in a dynamic learning community that has opportunity at every point to share and learn from each other in order to become the best that we can be.

We are proud of our diverse student population and passionate to create a staff team reflective of this diversity. We actively welcome applications from all backgrounds and you can be assured of a warm welcome at Archway.

We believe

- That a Christian ethos underpins and informs all that we do.
- That the focus of the Trust is to promote collaboration between schools within a strategic locality in order to secure mutual improvement.
- That through managed collaboration between academies there will be increased and improved opportunities for the development of all staff, students/children, parents and community.
- In the development of a broad and balanced curriculum that supports young people's personal development and preparation in life.
- That the family of academies within the Trust, working together, will secure continuity and progression for all.
- That there should be high expectation for all children/students and young people whatever their circumstances or starting point and addressing disadvantage.
- That, through its structures and work, the Trust can create and support effective Governance for all members.
- That, through the Trust's work across its academies, expertise and capacity will be developed so that they can be support with their development needs and economies of scale achieved.

Trust Ethos, Mission, Vision and Values

The Trust believes in the transformational power of education for each individual and that this is enhanced through collaborative working between the academies.

Working Together, Transforming Lives

The Nottingham Emmanuel School

The Nottingham Emmanuel School is a Church of England secondary and Sixth Form, with 1,000 students, including over 140 in the Sixth Form. The £25 million site is located near the banks of the River Trent in West Bridgford. The School is a diverse community, serving families and students from every academic, social, faith and ethnic background. Emmanuel has been praised nationally for its outstanding work as an effective, inclusive Church school.

Bluecoat SCITT

Based at Bluecoat Aspley Academy, the Bluecoat SCITT offers school based Teacher training in a range of schools and subjects. As an accredited provider of school based teacher training, we are committed to training outstanding teachers to work within the East Midlands region. Our comprehensive one year School Direct Training Programme is offered for both Primary and Secondary trainees, as well as a salaried option in certain subjects.

The Long Eaton School

The Long Eaton School with 1,078 students is built on a long tradition of academic success, dating back to 1910. The school has gained an excellent reputation for the quality of its educational provision and its developments in Literacy and Numeracy have earned the school the prestigious Quality Mark and our approaches have been shared nationally as a model of good practice.

School Locations

Welcome from the Principal, Mr Mark Shipman

Thank you very much for your interest in the role at The Long Eaton School. The school itself is a vibrant place to work and learn. We expect everyone to be the best they can and are supported to achieve this through our values – respect, ambition, academic excellence and the importance of community.

I am extremely proud to be headteacher at The Long Eaton School. Our students are wonderful young people, keen to learn. Our staff are hardworking, professional individuals who are committed to the community we serve. The togetherness of students and staff is what makes our school a special place to work. Relationships between staff and students are extremely strong. There is also a close knit and supportive staff team ethic.

Our school is part of The Archway Learning Trust which is an organisation serving Primary and Secondary Academies. As group of schools we believe in the power of education to transform lives and are committed to ensuring that all students excel academically, can positively contribute to their community and are supported in their wider well-being. These values influence every decision taken for staff, for students and our community.

Archway Trust, and Academies within the trust demonstrate a strong commitment to staff CPD and staff wellbeing. If you join The Long Eaton School, you will be inducted, supported and developed in a deliberate way from before you even take up post.

Above everything we put young people first and seek to recruit adults who share this view. We work with students, parents and families to provide an experience that enables them to achieve as well as they can and prepare them for the next stages of their education and life. We insist on classrooms and corridors that are respectful, orderly places where everyone is expected to display positive and mature attitudes.

Applying for a new job is a huge investment of time and energy. I would encourage you to seek out any information you need to make the important decision to apply and I welcome visits to our school in advance of applications wherever this might be helpful.

I wish you the absolute best with your application and thank you for taking the time to consider The Long Eaton School as a place of employment.

The Vacancy

The Trust is seeking a self-motivated and passionate candidate who can fulfil the role of Teacher of English at The Long Eaton School.

We invite applications for the post of Teacher of English from outstanding, enthusiastic and successful teachers with a proven ability to teach inspirational lessons to our students. The successful applicant will be expected to be fully committed to working closely with the Head of Department to develop the English provision and also to have a strong desire to be part of the founding cohort of staff. We are looking for teachers who have the ambition to shape the school into an outstanding provider. Candidates should consider the school's ethos and values to ensure these align with their own.

Candidates should pay attention to the job description/person specification and explain within their application how they meet the criteria, whilst also describing what they will bring to the post from their own knowledge and experience.

The role will be based at The Long Eaton School but the post holder may at any time be required to support or work at any of the sites within Archway Learning Trust.

POST TITLE:	TEACHER OF ENGLISH
GRADE:	MPS/UPS
RESPONSIBLE TO:	HEAD OF DEPARTMENT
RELATIONSHIPS WITH:	Senior Leadership Team Year Leaders Local community and educational providers SENCo / Teaching Assistants Support Staff Other teachers Parents

Introduction

Each teacher is responsible for all aspects of teaching and learning for those classes and students assigned to them. This involves the organisation and administration of classes, the preparation of lesson plans and teaching within faculty guidelines and schemes of work. Each member of staff has a responsibility to promote high quality throughout their work and that of the faculty, Academy and Trust as a whole. In particular it is important to maintain high standards of achievement and to encourage all students to fulfil their potential through effective teaching and high expectations.

In teaching at Archway Learning Trust importance is attached to:

- Team work
- Open consultation and participation in decision making
- Good communication
- A mutually supportive approach - sharing responsibility, success and problems
- Exercising positive leadership with students
- Maintaining high personal and professional standards
- Being forward looking and anticipating change

Main Responsibilities

- Teach students of the full range of age and ability;
- Contribute to the development of the Department's curriculum;
- Attend and contribute to school assemblies and acts of worship, as applicable;
- Follow Academy and departmental procedures on assessment, recording and reporting, including communication with parents at consultation evenings;
- Take part in departmental activities such as field trips;
- Undertake such departmental responsibilities as are delegated by the Head of History;
- Act as form tutor to a group of students
- Carry out a share of supervisory duties in accordance with published rotas;
- Set and mark home learning in accordance with Academy and departmental policies;
- Participate in meetings with colleagues and/or parents/carers with regard to the above responsibilities.

Teacher Responsibilities

Email: recruitment@archwaytrust.co.uk

Website: www.archwaytust.co.uk

- Consistently and effectively plan lessons and sequences of lessons to meet students' individual learning needs, including students with special educational needs, and gifted or talented students. They should be aware of, and take proper account of the strategies agreed in IEPs (Individual Education Plans) and IBPs (Individual Behaviour Plans);
- Keep an attendance register of students in every lesson and following up absence when necessary;
- Consistently and effectively use a range of appropriate strategies for teaching and classroom management;
- Consistently and effectively use information about prior attainment to set well-grounded expectations for students, and monitor progress to give clear and constructive feedback;
- Be able to make use of the performance data available in the Academy in order to determine how much progress their students are making;
- Take responsibility for their own professional development and use the outcomes to improve their teaching and students' learning;
- Make an active contribution to implementing the policies and aspirations of the Academy and Trust;
- Be effective professionals who challenge and support all students to do their best;
- Set and maintain high expectations for student behaviour;
- Set a good example to students, for example in terms of appropriate dress, standards of punctuality and attendance;

General Notes

- The aforementioned responsibilities are subject to the general duties and responsibilities contained in the School Teachers' Pay and Conditions Document and the Conditions of Service ("Burgundy Book") and are additional to the general duties and responsibilities of a Teacher;
- These accountabilities do not direct the particular amount of time to be spent on carrying them out and no part of it may be so construed;
- These accountabilities are not necessarily a comprehensive definition of the post. It will be reviewed at least once per year and it may be subject to modification or amendment at any time after consultation with the holder of the post.

Staff Conduct

- All employees are expected to familiarise themselves and follow the Trust vision and ethos during their working lives with Archway Learning Trust.
- We are professional people and expect professional conduct (behaviour and language) based on mutual respect, good manners, politeness and common courtesies for all members of our community. We expect that at all times employees behave in a manner that role models positive behaviours for our students to follow.
- Physical violence, verbal abuse and swearing are unacceptable and not tolerated.
- Employees are expected to maintain a professional relationship with students.
- Staff will be fully supported by the Trust at all times in carrying out the behaviour policy.

Dress Code

- The Trust expect staff to wear professional business dress mirroring our high expectations of our student dress code.
