

Job Description

Teacher of English

The post of Teacher at Wolverley CE Secondary School is subject to the relevant sections of the national Teachers' Conditions of Service and the contractual obligations of Worcestershire County Council.

Role

The post-holder will be immediately accountable to the relevant Subject Leader (SL) for teaching duties and the Head of College for tutoring duties.

Main Tasks

The main tasks associated with this role are listed below:

Teaching

- The post-holder will be expected to teach up to 45 periods (or pro rata) in a 50 period (pro-rata for part-time) fortnight or an equivalent proportion in a different curriculum structure.
- Teaching in at least two of Key Stages 3, 4 and 5 will be required.
- The post-holder will be responsible for planning and delivery of lessons to specified groups, marking, assessment and reporting on students in those groups and management of the behaviour of students in those groups.
- The post-holder will engage in professional development activity, seek to develop their own practice by reflection, observation and contribute to developments at school and team level.

Tutoring

- The post-holder will take responsibility for the academic progress and overall welfare of a group of students.
- This will involve liaising with parents, colleagues and students themselves over academic progress and other issues that affect the welfare of students in the assigned group.
- Each tutor and their group will be assigned to a College and will participate in activities organised on a College, Year or Key Stage basis.

Other duties

- The post-holder will be required to undertake up to two sessions of supervision of students outside lessons per week as permitted in the national conditions of service.
- Involvement in extra-curricular activity such as house competitions and activities is a requirement of this post.

Additional Responsibilities

This job description is not necessarily a comprehensive definition of the post. The post-holder is expected to carry out any other tasks which the Headteacher or Governors may from time to time reasonably require. This job description allocates duties but does not direct the particular amount of time to be spent on carrying them out and no part of it may be so construed.
