TEACHER OF FRENCH

Salary includes additional annual outer fringe allowance

An exciting opportunity to join a high achieving and very successful department in an over-subscribed 13-18 upper school. We are committed to offering an outstanding comprehensive education to all students.

The department enjoys its own recently refurbished suite of rooms. We have strong GCSE uptake as well as A level groups. Outcomes are consistently excellent with results that are significantly positive both in terms of attainment and progress.

This role offers excellent scope for an enthusiastic and inspiring teacher – whether experienced or an ECT - to work in a supportive, energetic and high-achieving school where students are making excellent progress.

An excellent ECT induction programme and July start is available.

The school is located on the A10, a convenient distance from both London and Cambridge.
