

Sanders School

Headteacher: Mr Stuart Brooks BSc (Hons)

French teacher

Equivalent MPS (Outer London)
Required for a September 2021 start

We seek to appoint an outstanding teacher to support the drive forward in our French Faculty. The successful applicant will be instrumental in ensuring the further improvement of the French Faculty, ensuring high quality teaching and that there are student intervention programmes in place which ensure student progress. There are great development possibilities within the school and Trust for the right candidate. The post would be ideal for a NQT/RQT ambitious and passionate member of staff.

Sanders is part of the Success for All Educational Trust along with Redden Court School and The Royal Liberty School. As an employee, you will be covered by our excellent well-being support and medical cover programme through the School Advisory Service (SAS). Sanders School is a small comprehensive, 11-16 school, located in Hornchurch and rich in history. We pride ourselves on our strong sense of community, the family feel of our school and are driven by our values of Teamwork, Hard work and Transparency.

As a French teacher you will

- Be accountable for the standards attained by all students within your lessons
- Set high standards of expectations within your classroom
- Plan and apply strategies/interventions that deliver rapid student progress
- Ensure the delivery of effective teaching and learning that maximises individual progress
- Ensure that within the faculty the learning environment including facilities, health and safety and effective deployment of resources

Closing Date: 10pm Monday 26h April 2021
