Post Title: TEACHER OF GEOGRAPHY – temporary to cover Maternity Leave

We are looking for an outstanding geography teacher to join our enthusiastic and committed department.

This is an excellent opportunity for a highly motivated and inspirational professional who is ready to develop their career in a friendly and supportive school. We welcome applications from either a newly qualified teacher or an experienced practitioner.

The successful candidate will be an outstanding practitioner, with excellent interpersonal skills and will be able to teach across age and ability ranges within our 11-18 school. They will be a person who thrives on a challenge, enjoys working with young people and is passionate about seeing them achieve.

The Eckington School Geography department follow an exciting, varied and topical KS3 curriculum which prepares our pupils for embarking on their GCSE course. Geography is a very popular subject amongst pupils of all ages and is reflected by our GCSE and A Level uptake. The successful candidate will have the opportunity to work within a collaborative department and will get the chance to get involved with revising schemes of work, ensuring the curriculum is engaging and developing enrichment opportunities for all learners.

This is a wonderful opportunity for someone to join an experienced and passionate team, and develop their career in a friendly and supportive environment.

This is a full time post, temporary for 1 year to cover maternity leave with a start date of 17th April 2023

The closing date for applications is Wednesday 1st February 2023 at 9.00 a.m.

Job Description

To be an effective professional who demonstrates thorough curriculum knowledge, can teach and assess effectively, take responsibility for professional development and has students who achieve well.

Planning Teaching & Classroom Management

- setting appropriate and demanding expectations;
- setting clear learning goals, building on prior attainment;
- being aware of and making provision for students' differing needs;
- providing clear structures for lessons maintaining pace, motivation and challenge;
- making effective use of assessment and ensure coverage of long term plans;
- building positive relationships with students;
- implementing school's procedures and encouraging good practice with regard to punctuality, behaviour, standards of work and homework;
- using a variety of teaching methods to match approach to content, structure information, present a set of key ideas and use appropriate vocabulary;
- using effective questioning, listening carefully to students, giving attention to errors and misconceptions;
- ensuring students acquire and consolidate knowledge, skills and understanding appropriate to the subject taught;
- ensuring policies relating to student rewards and behaviour management are implemented to secure a well-ordered learning environment;
- evaluating own teaching critically to improve effectiveness;
- ensuring the effective and efficient deployment of classroom support;
- contributing to the development of schemes of learning in the subject;
- liaising with the Subject Leader to ensure the implementation of department policy and best practice.

Monitoring, Assessing, Recording & Reporting

- assess how well learning outcomes have been achieved and use them to improve specific aspects of teaching;
- mark and monitor students' work and set targets for progress;
- assess and record students' progress systematically and keep records to check work is understood and completed, monitor strengths and weaknesses, inform planning and recognise the level at which the student is achieving;
- undertake assessment of students as requested by examination bodies, departmental and school procedures;
- undertake assessment of students and participate in the school's system for reporting to parents.

Pastoral Duties

- be a Form Tutor to an assigned group of students;
- promote the general progress and well-being of individual students and of the Form Tutor Group as a whole;
- liaise with the Leader of Student Development to ensure the implementation of the academy's pastoral system;
- register students, accompany them to assemblies, encourage their full attendance at all lessons and their participation in other aspects of school life;
- alert appropriate staff to problems experienced by students and make recommendations as to how these may be resolved;
- communicate, as appropriate, with parents of students.

Other Professional Responsibilities

- have a working knowledge of teachers' professional duties, teacher standards and legal liabilities;
- operate, at all times, within the stated policies and practices of the school, in particular safeguarding responsibilities;
- know subject(s) or specialism(s) to enable effective teaching;
- take account of wider curriculum developments;

- establish effective working relationships and set a good example through their presentation and personal and professional conduct;
- co-operate with other staff to ensure a sharing and effective usage of resources to the benefit of the school, department and students;
- contribute to the corporate life of the school through effective participation in meetings and systems necessary to coordinate the management of the school;
- take part in marketing and liaison activities such as Open Evenings, Parents Evenings and events with partner schools;
- take responsibility for own professional development and duties in relation to school policies and practices including health & safety policies;
- liaise effectively with parents.
- taking part in department extra-curricular activities

Whilst every effort has been made to explain the main duties and responsibilities of the post, each individual task undertaken may not be identified. Employees will be expected to comply with any reasonable request from the leadership team to undertake work of a similar level that is not specified in this job description.

It is understood that areas of responsibility are from time to time subject to review and are negotiable in the light of the needs of the school and the professional development of the staff.
