Open letter from Mr K Simpson (Headteacher)

Dear Colleague,

Neston High School is a large 11 – 18 rural fully inclusive comprehensive school with approximately 1,750 students on roll. We are consistently over-subscribed and are proud to serve our local families and the community who travel into the area to learn in our state of the art multi-million new build and grounds. Within our centre for learning you would be joining a dedicated team of colleagues, who consistently strive to shape extraordinary lives by providing all of our young people with the opportunities to explore, dream and discover their holistic potential.

As we continue to inspire our young people and further enhance their life-chances, I hope that the information provided inspires you to join us and help lead us forward into new exciting adventures.

For further information on the school, a more global understanding can be found from the website at www.nestonhighschool.com.

We really believe in true working partnerships thereby if you have any questions please contact the school direct in order to fully understand the exciting opportunity to join us in the near future.

Kindest regards

Keith Simpson
Headteacher

Full time position
Start date: January 2023

Do you have a passion for learning and strive to be an outstanding classroom practitioner?
Do you create engaging and challenging experiences for your students?
Do you have an excellent track-record of inspiring students to reach beyond their potential?
Do you want to join a supportive and enthusiastic team striving to build upon their strengths?
Do you want to join a heavily oversubscribed school in Cheshire with an excellent reputation?
Do you want to join a large school that supports the professional development of their staff?

If you are excited by your answers to these questions, then you may be our next teacher to join our team.

We are looking to appoint inspirational colleagues, to join our thriving learning community.
We are building on present best practice and developing a new strategic vision in order to raise standards even further. We are seeking a teacher to expand our Geography team who can bring creative new ideas to further enhance the learning experience of our students.

The school is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare and safety of children and young people and expects all staff to share this commitment.

Applications should be returned FAO Mr K Simpson to leadbetterh@nestonhigh.com.

An imperative is a determination and passion for your subject and a commitment to raising the expectations and achievement of all colleagues and students. This is a rare opportunity to become part of a highly motivated, professional and ambitious team and to have a real impact on learning across the school.

The successful candidate will lead a team of committed and forward-looking professionals; the department continually focus on honing their subject knowledge and employ research informed strategies to improve outcomes for all students.

The Humanities Team comprises a team of nineteen teachers, six of which are Geography specialists. There are twelve dedicated state of the art teaching rooms within the Humanities faculty.

At present, all students in Years 7 -9 have three hours of Geography each fortnight on a two-week timetable and are taught in two parallel ability bands.

At KS4, Geography is a popular choice for students. They have five lessons per fortnight and are taught in a variety of ability groups and work towards the Eduquas A examination.

At KS5 we follow the Edexcel A-Level and have nine lessons per fortnight.

The Humanities team have developed many extra-curricular opportunities in order to enhance learning outside of the classroom. At Key Stage 3 there are (non-residential) field visits for Year 7 and 8. At Key Stage 4 and 5 both non and residential visits are offered. In addition, the Geography team lead and support many of the Humanities SMSC extra-curricular and enrichment opportunities including educational visits such as the sixth form visit to Krakow, the Battlefields of World War One, Iceland and the USA.

Job Title: Teacher of Geography
Responsible to: Geography Curriculum Leader/Senior Leadership Team Line Manager

OVERALL RESPONSIBILITY

- To plan, develop and deliver high quality lessons and courses within the broad, balanced, relevant and differentiated subject curriculum using a variety of approaches, to continually enhance teaching and learning.
- To monitor pupil progress, keeping pupil records that include assessment outcomes and targets set at regular intervals in line with school policy, to enable all pupils to achieve their full potential.
- To maintain and build upon the standards achieved in the award for QTS (Secondary) as set out by the Secretary of State.
- Contribute to the safeguarding and promotion of the welfare and personal care of children and young people with regard to 'Keeping Children Safe in Education' and 'Working together to Safeguard Children' as well as the Prevent Duty.

SECTION 1 - GENERAL TEACHING DUTIES

Teaching and Learning

1. Manage pupil learning through effective teaching in accordance with the department's schemes of work and policies.
2. Ensure continuity, progression and cohesiveness in all teaching.
3. Use a variety of methods and approaches (including differentiation) to match curricular objectives and the range of pupil needs, and ensure equal opportunity for all pupils.
4. Set homework regularly, (in accordance with the School homework policy), to consolidate and extend learning and encourage pupils to take responsibility for their own learning.
5. Work with EAL/SEND staff and support staff (including prior discussion and capital planning) in order to benefit from their specialist knowledge and to maximise their effectiveness within lessons.
6. Support individual learning, including pupils on the subject gifted and talented register, by planning work with appropriate challenge and monitoring and reviewing pupil outcomes regularly.
7. Work within the Assessment for Learning Strategy, using clear and precise learning objectives and defining criteria for success for each lesson.
8. Work effectively as a member of the Department team to improve the quality of teaching and learning, by contributing to the Department Improvement Plan and implementing and monitoring change.
9. Implement new initiatives, school, local or national, by adapting classroom procedures accordingly, monitoring progress and reflecting on pedagogical outcomes.
10. Set high expectations for all pupils, to deepen their knowledge and understanding and to maximise their achievement.
11. Use positive management of behaviour in an environment of mutual respect that allows pupils to feel safe and secure and promotes their self-esteem.

Monitoring, Assessment, Recording, Reporting, and Accountability

1. Be immediately responsible for the processes of identification, assessment, recording and reporting for the pupils in their charge.

2. Track pupil progress, monitoring achievement against targets set, and take appropriate action on pupil outcomes.
3. Assess pupils' work systematically and use the results to inform future planning, teaching and curricular development.
4. Contribute towards the implementation of IEPs as detailed in the current Code of Practice particularly the planning and recording of appropriate actions and outcomes related to set targets.
5. Be familiar with statutory assessment and reporting procedures and prepare and present informative, helpful and accurate reports to parents.
6. Keep an accurate register of pupils for each lesson. Unexplained absences or patterns of absence should be reported immediately in accordance with the School policy.

Subject Knowledge and Understanding

1. Have a thorough and up-to-date knowledge and understanding of the National Curriculum programmes of study, level descriptors and specifications for examination courses.
2. Keep up-to-date with research and developments in pedagogy in the subject area.
3. Contribute to the effective use of subject resources, including evaluation of new materials and equipment.
4. Keep up-to-date with technological change and the use of technology to enhance delivery, and pupil access, to the subject.

Professional Standards and Development

1. Be a role model to pupils through personal presentation and professional conduct.
2. Arrive in class, on or before the start of the lesson, and begin and end lessons on time.
3. Cover for absent colleagues as is reasonable, fair and equitable.
4. Be familiar with the School and Department handbooks and Departmental Portfolio contents and support all the School's policies, e.g. those on Health and Safety, Citizenship, Literacy, Numeracy and ICT.
5. Establish effective working relationships with professional colleagues and associate staff.
6. Be involved in extra-curricular activities such as making a contribution to after-school clubs and visits.
7. Maintain a working knowledge and understanding of teachers' professional duties as set out in the current School Teachers' Pay and Conditions document, and teachers' legal liabilities
8. Liaise effectively with parent/carers and with other agencies with responsibility for pupils' education and welfare.
9. Be aware of the role of the Governing Body of the School and support it in performing its duties.
10. Be familiar with and implement the relevant requirements of the current SEN Code of Practice, DDA and Access to Work.
11. Consider the needs of all pupils within lessons (and implement specialist advice) especially those who:
 - have SEN;
 - are gifted and talented;
 - are not yet fluent in English.

Health and Safety

1. Undergo Basic First Aid training and update courses.
2. Be aware of the responsibility for personal Health, Safety and Welfare and that of others who may be affected by your actions or inactions.
3. Co-operate with the employer on all issues to do with Health, Safety & Welfare.
4. Have an understanding of visits' procedures and the relevant actions to take when planning out of school activities.

Continuing Professional Development

1. In conjunction with the line manager, take responsibility for personal professional development, keeping up-to-date with research and developments in teaching pedagogy and changes in the School Curriculum, which may lead to improvements in teaching and learning.
 2. Undertake any necessary professional development as identified in the School Improvement Plan taking full advantage of any relevant training and development available.
 3. Implement and develop pedagogic procedures introduced through school, local or government initiatives.
 4. Implement the use of new technologies that enhance teaching and learning.
 5. Participate in leadership, peer and self monitoring and evaluation schemes, responding to, and acting upon, advice and guidance received.
 6. Carry out reflective practice exercises to move classroom practice, teaching and learning, forward.
 7. Use 'gained time' by revising teaching, learning and curriculum materials in readiness for new academic year; participate in collaborative planning sessions; provide additional pupil support or any activity directed by the Headteacher.
 8. Maintain a professional portfolio of evidence and learning log to support the Performance Management process - evaluating and improving own practice.
 9. Contribute to the professional development of colleagues, especially NQTs and ITTs.
 10. Contribute to departmental development by sharing professional learning, expertise and skills with others in the team, through departmental training activities such as coaching and mentoring.
- N.B: Every subject teacher will be expected to have pastoral responsibilities - detailed separately.

SECTION 2 - ADDITIONAL DUTIES FOR THIS POST

The following tasks will be negotiated and agreed at the time of appointment and at annual review.

These additional tasks are seen as an important part of the School's professional development programme:

This job description will be reviewed annually and may be subject to amendment or modification at any time after consultation with the post holder. It is not a comprehensive statement of procedures and tasks but sets out the main expectations of the School in relation to the post holder's professional responsibilities and duties.
