We are seeking to appoint a dynamic and inspirational part-time Teacher of German to join the Modern Foreign Languages Team and to help take the department to even further success. The school has a highly committed staff team with extremely well motivated students and excellent facilities. Languages are very popular at the school and we offer French, German, Spanish and Latin at KS3 and KS4 with French, German and Spanish at A level. A range of exchange visits and cultural trips are also available to languages students at all key stages :

The successful candidate will:

- Have a passion for Languages and the ability to inspire both staff and students.
- Have experience of successful teaching in all three Key Stages.
- Have the ability and desire to teach German to A Level.
- Be able to continue to raise achievement through high quality teaching and learning within the department, informed by internal and external data
- Contribute to whole school improvement and self-evaluation

The school is graded 'Outstanding' in all categories and is a National Teaching School. Marling School is a vibrant and exciting teaching and learning environment which places staff wellbeing and development at the centre of its work. Our staff are proud and happy to work here. Reasons for that include:

- A highly committed and supportive staff team
- Interested and well behaved students
- A lesson observation process that is developmental not judgemental
- Sensible assessment policies that promote more feedback and less marking
- A culture of continuing professional development tailored to each staff member's needs
- Excellent facilities including over £5M new buildings.

We welcome applications from both experienced teachers and NQTs. Please do not hesitate to contact the headteacher (c/o Amanda Oxberry) if you wish to discuss the context of the school or the opportunities it has to offer.

Marling School is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and young people and expects all staff and volunteers to share this commitment. The appointed person will be required to undergo an enhanced DBS check.
