The Dean Trust Broadoak is seeking to appoint a Teacher of History. Are you the next great History teacher to join our school? With the positive reputation of our Humanities team and a drive to continuously provide a superb history education, we are seeking to appoint a dedicated, passionate, professional and impactful teacher to join our Humanities team.

Broadoak School is a proud member of The Dean Trust and forms part of the West Trafford Learning Partnership. Our school proudly provides a broad and balanced curriculum with an impressive array of subjects at KS4. Our values and ethos centre on 'Providing Opportunities, Improving Lives'.

We are looking for a history teacher who is ready to join a committed staff body and a caring school community. Passionate about your subject and inspiring the next generation here at Broadoak, you will also have strong subject and pedagogical knowledge.

To support you and your professional development, we offer:

- An ambitious co-constructed KS3 Trust-wide curriculum to support planning and decrease workload
- A positive and hardworking wider Humanities department
- Over 55% of the cohort choosing History
- A department making over 10% increases at grades 5+ and 7+ over the past two years.
- Balanced and considered faculty feedback policy, with staff workload and impact at its core
- Internal subject-specific CPD and a commitment to external CPD opportunities
- Supportive and caring colleagues and leaders
- Centralised detention systems
- Trustwide collaboration and support, both in subject and whole-school aspects

Teacher of History

- Full working knowledge of the National Curriculum requirements for specified subject
- Be able to work as a member of a team
- Be committed to ensuring that every pupil is given the opportunity to achieve their potential and meet the high expectations set for them
- Take responsibility for personal and professional development and to keep up to date with research and development in both subjects and teaching methodology with a strong appreciation for the enthusiasm of how Technology can improve teaching and learning and contribute to a skill and capabilities-based curriculum
- To be able to assist in the planning and organisation of school trips/visits
- Ability to foster and maintain collaborative working relationships and the sharing of good practice
- Ability to manage time effectively and deal with conflicting priorities
- Develop and implement policies and practices which reflect the school's commitment to high achievement
- To be able to communicate effectively with pupils, staff, parents and member of the community
- Good organisational skills
