Our School Motto

Our school motto is: Ad Caelestia Sequere... Reach for the stars and so, Highworth aims to develop students who are:

Reflective, creative & innovative

Eager for life-long learning

Aiming to achieve their full potential

Considerate, confident, independent individuals

Happy in a caring, respectful community

Our motto of 'Reach for the Stars' embodies the daily working life of the whole school community; students are encouraged to see learning as a lifelong activity. A key feature of our motto is happiness which is achieved through excellent student behaviour in lessons; clear policies and guidance; strong leadership; and enthusiastic community spirit. It is important that both staff and students feel confident, happy and valued.

Welcome

Highworth Grammar School combines a tradition of academic excellence with extensive pastoral support. The school has been educating students from the Ashford community for over a century and we are now a thriving school with over 1500 students and 140 staff. Students at Highworth love learning and are highly motivated. We care about our students and they care about each other which creates a happy and supportive learning environment.

Students at Highworth are given rewards for creativity, problem solving, achievement resilience and team work. We value the development of a full range of skills to offer students the best preparation for future challenges. Working here allows staff to share this balanced approach to education; embrace new ideas; and sustain a sense of enjoyment in their own learning.

Whilst the school is academic we recognise and fully support the creative aspects of the curriculum and are proud of the many opportunities provided for achievement in music, D&T, and the arts. We believe this is crucial in our ethos in encouraging our students to be independent, creative and highly motivated lifelong learners.

Our A Level and GCSE results and performance measure page can be accessed using this link:

Job Description

History at Highworth

History and Politics at Highworth are lively, stimulating and thought-provoking subjects, with students challenged to counter misconceptions and form well-reasoned views regarding the past and how it influences the present. Our aim is to develop the intellectual and emotional character of our students by studying a diverse range of human experiences and to mould inquisitive and questioning young historians, as well as politically engaged and socially conscious citizens.

Supported by our excellent Prefect team, the History and Politics department aims to bring the past to life through engaging lessons, creative activities and exceptional subject knowledge. Whether it is the tension of the Cuban Missile Crisis, experiences of child labourers or the impact of recent US presidencies, students critically engage with the events that have shaped the world in which we live.

In all its teaching the department aims to foster and achieve high academic standards and a passion for the subject. There are 5 teachers of History, some of whom are delivering other subjects, such as Politics, as part of their overall timetable. The department very much works as a team with a strong belief in sharing good practice and resources

Accountabilities:

- To complete the tasks of the classroom teacher as set out in the School Teachers' Pay and Conditions document (extract attached for reference) having due regard for the school's aims and objectives, schemes of work/syllabi, and policies of the Governing Body.
- To work with the Head of Department to ensure students are taught to the highest standard.
- To undertake the duties of Mentor as directed by the Director of Learning and appropriate managers, when required.
- To share in the corporate responsibility for the wellbeing and discipline of all students.
- To take delegated responsibility for the implementation of the Health and Safety Act as may be agreed.
- To contribute to the school aims by providing activities that enrich the curriculum and the students' experience of learning.
- To support and implement all relevant aspects of the development plan and make a measurable contribution to whole school objectives.

Performance Development:

All staff review the Highworth Green standards and Blue standards and personal targets in their annual Performance Review.

Staff Development:

To assess development and training needs and discuss with Line Manager.

To keep personal records of all staff development activities in which you are/have been involved.

To carry out as requested from time to time any other relevant duties as may be reasonably required by the Headteacher.

Highworth is committed to creating a diverse workforce. We will consider all qualified applicants for employment without regard to sex, race, religion, belief, sexual orientation,, gender reassignment, pregnancy, maternity, age, disability, marriage or civil partnership.

The post holder will be required to: promote the health, safety and wellbeing of self and others; safeguard student and staff welfare; and follow school policies and the staff code of conduct.
