Wren Academy Enfield is the second school of the Wren Academies Trust which is sponsored by the London Diocesan Board for Schools and Berkhamsted School. Opening in September 2020 with a first cohort of Year 7 students.

Wren Academy Enfield - Academy Information 2023/2024

The Wren Academies Trust is sponsored by the London Diocesan Board for Schools (Church of England) and Berkhamsted School. Having established an excellent first academy in the London Borough of Barnet, we are almost three years into opening a second school which has just transferred into fantastic new buildings located on the Chase Farm Hospital site in Enfield

Since opening in September 2020 the school has been closely modelled on the successful Wren Academy Finchley whilst creating a distinctive vision and ethos which matches the needs and aspirations of Enfield students who join the school. It is planned that the school will repeat the success of Wren Academy Finchley which has achieved some of the best GCSE progress results in the country and has created a highly successful academic Sixth Form.

Wren Academy Enfield is a comprehensive school, which welcomes students whatever their previous academic attainment, then does all it can to maximise their academic and social potential. We are a vibrant and culturally diverse learning community where all members benefit from our distinctive and inclusive Christian vision inspired by the encounter of Zacchaeus with Jesus (Luke 19v1-10) and the exhortation found in Micah 6v8 to 'Do justice, love kindness and walk humbly with your God'.

The curriculum is innovative, challenging and engaging. There is an extended school day with lessons of varying lengths, single sex teaching in core subjects and an extensive timetable of enrichment activities. Each half term Focus Days are organised when the usual timetable gives way to in depth study of a range of issues relating to PSHE, the academy specialism and our ethos. To further support learning and social development, a House system is in place which is organised into vertical tutor groups of students in Years 7-10.

Single sex teaching takes place in English, Mathematics and Science and is in place to promote strong outcomes for both girls and boys. The approach has been highly successful at Wren Academy Finchley where there is a higher proportion of girls studying Mathematics and Physics A Levels and then related degrees than would normally be the case. Similarly, the number of boys in English A Level classes, and then studying the subject at university has also been strong.

Inspired by Sir Christopher Wren, our specialism is Design and the Built Environment. Key skills associated with the specialism, such as planning and creativity, impact across all subjects. We work closely with a range of public and private sector partners in delivering the specialism and in ensuring it enhances but never dominates our curriculum. Given the proximity to the Chase Farm Hospital we are exploring ways that the specialism can incorporate the field of medical science to the benefit of all students.

We develop students' learning skills and attitudes through our immersion in a strong learning philosophy. This is based on the 6 Rs which encourages students to be

- Resilient
- Relational
- Reflective
- Redemptive
- Resourceful
- Reverent

All learning is supported using digital tablets which are an expected item of equipment for every student. The use of the technology enhances learning within the classroom and at home whilst also being fully utilised to support student progress.

Colleagues are encouraged to innovate and to develop new ways of learning and working together. Taking advantage of the curriculum and lesson planning from Wren Academy

Do justice, love kindness, walk humbly with your God: Micah 6v8

Finchley, teachers develop and enhance existing learning resources to create exciting curriculum opportunities for the benefit of students in both schools.

All teachers joining Wren receive a high-quality professional development experience. We hope that simply by working at the new academy, teachers will become better practitioners and that much of the best professional development will be found in working with Wren colleagues. However, we explicitly prioritise CPD with an innovative programme which provides 3 discrete hours for the development of teachers. Within this structure there is a focus on engaging with the latest educational research, with many colleagues undertaking research projects related to their practice. Therefore, we are looking to recruit teachers who are keen to become the very best teachers whilst focusing on ensuring excellent progress and the creation of firm foundations which will lead to GCSE and A Level success.

Our new buildings which we occupied in December 2022 are architecturally impressive and provide an exceptional teaching environment with breath-taking views across the greenbelt and into London. As well as a range of good-sized well-equipped classrooms the site benefits from the following features:

- A welcoming and pleasant restaurant area for both staff and students which is set at the heart of the school
- Dance studio, extensive gym, and assembly hall
- Impressive Sixth Form social and study areas
- Excellent performance spaces both in and outdoors
- Pleasant outdoor social and learning areas for both staff and students

The development of a second academy has led to collaboration and innovation opportunities which benefit all staff and have improved the provision of both schools. Many professional development opportunities have been created which ensure that all colleagues are well equipped and encouraged to be effective in their role.

At Wren you will be given time to plan and evaluate your lessons and intervention strategies. You will be part of a learning dialogue with colleagues for which time is set aside. Most importantly of all, you will be working with young people who are talented and enthusiastic about their learning. We believe that observing other teachers and having them observe you is a professional entitlement and especially important given our focus on quality first teaching. It is an expectation that all Wren teachers will be confident and open in seeing lesson observation as a key element of how we learn as professionals.

We are looking to recruit excellent teachers who have the desire to develop further. We want to appoint colleagues who possess real curiosity about the ways in which children learn most effectively and who are always seeking to extend their practice into new areas and learning activities. It is important that Wren teachers are ambitious both for themselves and for their students.

Other benefits of teaching at Wren Academy Enfield:

- Children of colleagues working at Wren for over two years will be given priority for a place in Year 7 of the school they work at.
- Career development opportunities in a successful and growing Multi Academy Trust with plans to expand further.
- Excellent professional development opportunities including support for programmes of further study and planned career development.
- Free refreshments and a lunchtime allowance
- Timetabled professional development time during the school day
- Planning and evaluation time during the school day

The Wren Academies Trust is a MAT with plans to develop beyond two schools. This will provide further exciting professional development opportunities for the successful candidate.

History Department Information

The Humanities department at Wren Academy Enfield provides a creative, innovative, and inclusive environment where interactive and challenging lessons enable students to immerse themselves fully in the past. Students enjoy the diversity of topics and the engaging activities through which they explore them. There are currently four members of the Humanities team, with several members teaching in other subject areas and holding middle or senior leadership positions across the school. This is an exciting opportunity for a newly qualified or experienced History teacher to bring their expertise and ingenuity to the department.

In Years 7 & 8 Humanities is integrated with History and Geography topics being taught alternatively each half-term. Year 7 receive two hours per week, whilst Year 8 receive three hours per week. In Year 9, it becomes discrete with an hour dedicated to each subject every week, delivered by a specialist. Our schemes of learning and lesson plans enable students to think in a number of ways, in line with the school policy on the Wren Academy ethos and the 6Rs. In addition, we are heavily focused on developing intellectual curiosity inside and outside the classroom, and teachers are encouraged to share opportunities and resources that may promote independent thought in our students. The approach in the department is collaborative, with all members of the team sharing resources and team planning, and any new member of the department would be expected to share and contribute accordingly.

The Humanities department prides itself on the cross-curricular nature of its curriculum, finding new ways to bring in links to subjects such as Music, Drama and Design & Technology, which is our Academy specialism. It is important to us that the demographic of our student body is reflected in the topics we teach, and therefore are always looking at ways to further diversify our curriculum. In the past year we have developed the 'Meanwhile, Elsewhere' lesson series, allowing students to cross-examine world events happening simultaneously with the topics they are studying. These include, the Song Dynasty, the Benin Kingdom, Black Tudors & LGBT Royal Histories to name a few.

We are keen to utilise the technology at our disposal to maximise learning progress at Wren Academy Enfield. All students at the Academy have their own tablets, and we use these both in and outside of lessons to enhance the learning experiences of our students. We currently subscribe to Seneca, an online platform testing recall amongst students. Tablets are also invaluable in making the most out of our curriculum, from the use of interactive PowerPoints and QR Code information quests to formative assessment mediums such as Blooket.

We anticipate a high uptake of History for September 2023 as our first KS4 cohort embark upon their GCSEs. We will be following the Edexcel GCSE specification. The GCSE units chosen are, 'Medicine in Britain, c1250–present and The British sector of the Western Front, 1914–18: injuries, treatment and the trenches', 'Weimar and Nazi Germany, 1918-39', 'Superpower relations and the Cold War, 1941-91' and 'Early Elizabethan England, 1558-88'. Our KS3 curriculum contains diluted elements of each of these topics to familiarise students with content as early as possible. We are also excited at the prospect of delivering A-Level History to our students in the future.

All students are regularly assessed in line with the Academy assessment calendar and outcomes are moderated to ensure accurate and consistent summative data. In order to maximise the benefits of being part of a Multi-Academy-Trust, we work closely with the History Department at Wren Academy Finchley. Students across the MAT sit the same summer assessment to allow for collaborative moderation and long-term planning. Support is provided through the line management process and regular planning and evaluation meetings to ensure all members of staff are confident in their judgements. This is one of many professional development opportunities available at Wren and the Humanities department is dedicated to quality CPD.
