

Teacher of History

Role: Teacher of History
Reports to: History Subject Lead
Contract: 1.0 FTE, permanent contract
Salary: MPS/UPS
Start Date: 1st September 2026

An exciting and rewarding opportunity has arisen within our History department for a well-qualified teacher to teach across Key Stages 3 and 4 in an innovative school environment.

Inspire the next generation to question, challenge and understand the world through History.

You will be joining a school which invests in all its staff through subject specific CPD and places great emphasis on its own programme of professional growth. This is a position that will offer you a platform to make a real difference both to the students you will inspire.

About you

We are looking for...

a passionate and driven Teacher of History who is committed to delivering engaging, high-quality lessons that spark curiosity and a love of learning. You will be a strong team player with excellent communication skills, able to motivate and inspire students of all abilities. Whether you are an Early Career Teacher or an experienced practitioner, you will bring energy, resilience and a commitment to inclusive education, alongside a determination to help every student achieve their full potential. You'll need to be able to work collaboratively, as well as independently.

This is an exciting opportunity because...

we are committed to cultivating a love of learning in our students, and we invest heavily in the development of our staff too. Working within a school that prioritises innovation and student engagement, you will have the platform to make a real difference by supporting students to overcome barriers, build confidence, and exceed expectations.

You will be joining a...

supportive and collaborative team within a school that places strong emphasis on its core values of Positivity, Ambition, Resilience and Thoughtfulness. As part of the wider BePART Educational Trust, the team is committed to raising aspirations and delivering an inclusive education that supports both academic success and personal development for every student.

About us

In 2023, The Birkenhead Park School began a transformation: a new leadership team, a new approach and a renewed focus on excellence.

Behaviour has improved significantly with the introduction of 'Learning Habits' and there has been an improvement in student attendance of seven percentage points, the best improvement in the Wirral. In November 2023, Ofsted recognised the huge progress that we've made and said "the school is on a rapid journey of improvement."

The School is part of the BePART Educational Trust which includes Birkenhead Sixth Form College, an Ofsted Outstanding post-16 specialist college.

The School and the College work collaboratively to share and develop educational best practice and create an inspiring culture with opportunities for career development.
