THE HISTORY CURRICULUM AREA

The History curriculum area is a vibrant and forward thinking department which strives to provide engaging lessons which stretch pupils of all abilities to achieve their full potential. The department is one of the most respected in the school, proving to be repeatedly the most popular option subject, along with excellent results.

History is taught by a team of eight specialist teachers managed by the Curriculum Area Leader. The team includes two Heads of House, two Deputy Headteachers and the acting Head of Sixth Form. The department works with the University of Cambridge on the mentoring of trainee teachers and has also helped with the development of trainees for the Cambridge partnership.

History has its own central resources area close to the five History classrooms. The department has access to a wide variety of resources including interactive whiteboards and an extensive range of texts. The department has also taken on a leading role with the trusts iLearn project.

The National Curriculum is followed at both KS3 and KS4. With the creation of the Year 7 curriculum, the department now uses Year 8 and 9 as an opportunity to build students substantive knowledge and historical skills. In Year 8 the programme focuses Britain between the Norman Conquest and the Industrial Revolution, focussing on themes that can be followed over the large time span, for example power. Year 9 focuses upon the development of the modern world, including units on slavery to civil rights and wars over time. It is an engaging curriculum which encourages independent research and development of thinking skills. Schemes of work are in place for these units.

In Years 10 and 11 students may opt for History alongside other EBACC subjects. We have consistently had over 180 students choose History despite not being compulsory. History currently runs fifteen GCSE groups (both Years 10 and 11) following either 9-1 History Edexcel (Norman Conquest; Superpower Relations; Medicine Through Time and Germany 1918-1939). We also have four OCR Ancient History (Foundations of Rome, Hanibal; Persian Empires and the Age of Pericles).

At A level we attract over 40 students, following the OCR History specification. This involves a compulsory coursework element where students complete an independent study. They also complete examination units on International Relations 1890-1941; Russia and its Rulers 1855-1964; Anglo-Saxon and Norman England c.1040-1104.

Examination results at both GCSE and 'A' level show progress consistently above the national average and are some of the best results in the school. The department prides itself on its commitment to extending the experience of students beyond the classroom and continues to look for new opportunities to pursue this. We have previously run Battlefield trips and visits to Lincoln Castle and Cathedral, Black Country Museum and Warwick Castle.
