

NEW COLLEGE LEICESTER

TEACHER OF HISTORY

Job Outline

Thank you for your interest in this post. We believe that this role will be vital in assisting us in the drive for further improvement within the college. The role will be extremely important as the successful candidate will ensure, with the Head of Faculty, that achievement is raised throughout the Faculty and that the Faculty is an exciting place in which to learn. This postholder will make the difference in our young people's lives.

This is an exciting opportunity for an ambitious practitioner with real drive, enthusiasm and the ability to cope with hard work! You will need to have the ability to work as part of a team but to also be able to lead a team of colleagues. The ability to deliver on your areas of responsibility is vital to the success of the college.

There are currently 9 Humanities teachers based in the Humanities Department who are supported by a Faculty Clerk.

You will be well supported and offered good professional development opportunities. If you came into teaching to make a difference – then this is the place for you. We transform lives on a daily basis!

I hope our letter to applicants gives you a real flavour of our school. If you need any more information about us, please contact Lynn Dawson, HR/Administration Manager on 0116 231 8501. If you wish to talk over any issues, please contact me by telephone. You can also download the information from our website at www.newcollege.leicester.sch.uk. Alternatively, please contact our Head of Geography, Mr Haroon Mansoor on 0116 231 8500 or email hmansoor@newcollege.leicester.sch.uk.

In order to get this job, you will need to:

- complete the application form;
- write a letter of application; and
- be ready to demonstrate your teaching skills on the day of the interview

Please include any other information you wish to bring to my attention, to write your letter of application and tell me what qualifies you for this important post.

Applications must be received by Monday 25th October 2021 – 12 pm.

We do hope you decide to apply for the job. We need highly skilled and committed teachers; people who are ambitious for the children of New College Leicester and themselves. We look forward to hearing from you.

Jane Brown
Principal
