WELCOME

FROM THE HEADTEACHER

Thank you for taking the time to consider applying for the post of Teacher of History.

Here at St Matthew's my vision is clear. I expect the highest standards, in order to achieve the best for our young people. Our core purpose is of course our Catholic mission: 'We pray, We care, We achieve'. Our core business is Teaching, Learning and Achievement. I am confident that we have taken the first steps to being the outstanding Catholic community we all want for our young people. Whilst I recognise that there is much still to do, I am very confident that working together, we can achieve excellence for our community.

I have had the privilege of leading St Matthew's as Headteacher since September 2018. Considerable changes have been introduced across the school and the effectiveness of these were recognised at the Ofsted monitoring visit in January 2019. I know our full community have high ambitions for St Matthew's and believe we have a fantastic school in the making.

Together, with the Governors, we are looking for someone who is an inspiring, motivated and enthusiastic teacher to join our Humanities department.

In return, we are totally committed to the continued professional development of all staff and take seriously our responsibility to develop all individuals.

I hope that you find the information in this pack useful and it helps you to make the decision to apply. We would be delighted to meet you should you wish to accept our open invitation to visit our wonderful school.

Yours sincerely,

Mrs Helen Murden
Headteacher

NQT Support

Working with St Patrick's Teaching School as our Awarding body, we offer NQTs a bespoke and personalised package of CPD support. Our Newly qualified teachers will take part in a number of event days based at St Patrick's as well as the Salford Diocese programme.

NQTs will also follow a school based CPD programme designed to support individual needs to ensure the continued progress of teaching and learning, and supporting wider professional development. This tailored NQT programme takes place alongside the whole school CPD programme, and is in addition to this.

NQTs are assigned a curriculum mentor, an experienced member of your subject department, who will meet with you regularly to support your continued development. In addition, your Induction Tutor will coordinate all of these induction activities and meet with you regularly to discuss your overall progress towards NQT Targets and continued progress in meeting the teacher standards.
