INSPIRING POTENTIAL
ACHIEVING TOGETHER

Thank you for your interest in The Bulmershe School. We are a thriving, oversubscribed school at the heart of the Woodley community, with nearly 1,500 students aged 11–18 from diverse backgrounds and cultures. Our school is known for its inclusive and supportive ethos, where students are encouraged to be happy, self-confident, and aspirational learners.

At Bulmershe, we are proud of our strong sense of community and our commitment to the core values that shape school life:

RESPECT • RESPONSIBILITY • RESILIENCE • SAFETY

These values define how we work together, ensuring that both staff and students feel valued and supported. Whether you are an experienced teacher or just beginning your career, you will find a team that is collaborative, welcoming, and dedicated to making a difference.

With a thriving and growing Sixth Form, we offer exciting opportunities to teach A-level subjects in an environment that nurtures both students and staff. Our curriculum is designed to instil a love of learning while equipping students with the knowledge and skills they need for a successful future.

Beyond the classroom, Bulmershe provides a wealth of opportunities for students and staff alike. Our school campus has seen significant investment in recent years, including a state-of-the-art 400-seat auditorium, extensive refurbishments, and the new £14 million Wokingham Leisure Centre. With exclusive daytime access to this outstanding facility, our students and staff benefit from a first-class environment for sport and wellbeing.

At The Bulmershe School, we believe that education is about more than just results—it's about creating a place where students and staff can thrive. If you share our passion for education and want to be part of a school where you can make a real impact, we warmly invite you to apply.

I look forward to welcoming you to our team.

Amanda Woodfin
Headteacher

CURRENT OPPORTUNITY:

TEACHER OF HISTORY

We are seeking a dynamic and enthusiastic Teacher of History to join our welcoming and experienced Humanities Faculty. This is a fantastic opportunity for either an experienced teacher or a confident Early Career Teacher looking for a supportive environment to begin their career.

The Department

History sits within the wider Humanities Faculty, alongside Geography and Travel & Tourism. It is a friendly, well-resourced and supportive team, with a strong culture of collaboration and continuous improvement.

Our curriculum offers students a broad and balanced historical education, from the KS3 National Curriculum to GCSE Edexcel topics and OCR A-Level modules.

Our History Department has gone from strength to strength in recent years. With a stable, well-organised team, strong schemes of work in place and improving outcomes, we're now looking for someone who can bring energy, creativity and a passion for the subject.

Role and Responsibilities

- Teach History across KS3, KS4 (Edexcel GCSE) and KS5 (OCR A-Level)
- Work closely with an established team, guided by a strong Head of History and Head of Humanities.
- Plan engaging and inclusive lessons that cater for all abilities
- Inspire students to think critically, question the world around them and achieve their personal best
- Be responsible and accountable for high standards of work and conduct
- To work alongside the Curriculum Leader to raise standards within the department
- Produce creative schemes of work, lesson plans, subject examinations and other documentation as required
- Engage in the continuous assessment of the students, tracking progress and informing teaching and learning to ensure the highest standards of attainment are realised
- Actively promote the acquisition of outstanding literacy skills and reading for pleasure across the school
- Play an active role in the wider school community, including extra-curricular clubs and trips
- Be a collaborative colleague who will contribute positively to the department
- Serve as a form tutor
