TEACHER OF HISTORY

JOB DESCRIPTION

At the heart of a successful school is the provision of high quality teaching, the effective use of resources, improving standards of achievement for all students, and the promotion of students' personal development and well-being. A subject teacher plays a key part in this provision by a commitment to the school's ethos, by working effectively in subject and pastoral teams, and by delivering high standards of teaching and learning and personal care. In this way, s/he assists the school in reaching its targets and objectives.

JOB PURPOSE

To teach pupils across the full age and ability range present in the school in order to ensure the highest possible standards of pupil achievement, personal development, and well-being.

REPORTING

The post holder will report to the specified Head of Department and Head of Year.

WORKING TIME AND CONDITIONS

These will be as specified in the latest School Teachers Pay and Conditions Document

The post holder will continue to meet, maintain, and build upon, as appropriate:

- the National Standards for QTS as laid down by the Training and Development Agency, relating to
  - a) Professional values and practice
  - b) Teaching
  - c) Knowledge and understanding
- the Induction Standards
- the Threshold Standards

(Please see www.tda.gov.uk)

ACCOUNTABILITIES

- To promote and be committed to the school's aims and objectives
- To maintain and contribute to the development of school policies
- To promote and be committed to securing high expectations for learning and the raising of achievement
- To work with teachers in the department to create resources and support extra-curricular activities
- Within school and subject policies, to:
  - Effectively teach National and School Curricula
  - Set appropriate homework
  - Mark work, assess, record, track and report student progress, using available data
  - Provide a stimulating learning environment
  - Have due regard for maintaining health and safety and security in the areas s/he uses
  - Contribute to department and school enrichment programmes
- To be a member of a pastoral team and, if required, a form tutor carrying out the associated responsibilities
- To assist with the effective operation of subject and year teams by, individually and with others:
  - Developing schemes of work, resources, teaching and learning strategies
  - Contributing to team review, monitoring and evaluation, and the development of working practices
  - Participating in working groups, ad hoc projects
  - Taking part in other professional development activities
