Respect and Pride brings Success

2 x Teacher of Humanities (geography and history)

Teacher salary spine – permanent, full-time

Commencing 23 August 2021

We are looking for two creative and ambitious teachers of humanities to join our small and friendly department, where your own expertise and enthusiasm will further enhance the successes of this high profile and high achieving faculty. These posts are suitable for both newly qualified and more experienced teachers.

As a teacher of humanities, specialising in either geography or history, you will be dedicated to raising standards to ensure continued improvement in the quality of teaching and learning. You should be passionate about raising student achievement and ensuring every student reaches their full potential by planning, delivering, monitoring, evaluating and developing appropriately inspiring broad and differentiated lessons.

The successful candidates will be highly motivated, innovative and creative classroom practitioners with an in-depth subject knowledge, demonstrating the ability and aptitude to teach their subjects to a very high standard. You will be someone who believes they can make a difference to the lives of young people, not only enthusing them about humanities, but also able to evidence excellent results for their students at GCSE.

Ibstock Community College has 570 students on roll and is at the heart of the local community, serving families in Ibstock and the surrounding villages of North-West Leicestershire. We are at an exciting stage in our development with plans to expand from a Key Stage 3 (11-14) school to welcoming students from 11-16 from autumn 2022. We also anticipate exciting future developments and opportunities when we join LiFE Multi Academy Trust later this academic year.

The college is committed to high expectations and success for all. As students, staff, parents and governors we share the following values and beliefs:-

Resilience

Equity

Success

Pride

Encouragement

Curriculum

Trust

We are fully committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children. An enhanced DBS disclosure is required for this post.

Closing date for applications: 9.00 am on Wednesday 12 May 2021
