

Broadlands House, Broadlands Lane, Hereford HR1 1HY

Tel: 01432 357371 | Fax: 01432 263925 | Email: admin@aylestone.hereford.sch.uk

www.aylestone.hereford.sch.uk

Candidate Pack

Teacher of Humanities (History/Geography)

Required for September 2025

0.6 MPS/UPR

(0.4 - 0.8 Permanent Variable)

Closing date: 9.00 am on Thursday
3rd April 2025

Interviews

Week Commencing:

Monday 7th April 2025

Executive Headteacher's Welcome

Dear Candidate,

Thank you for taking the time to find out more about Aylestone School and expressing an interest in this position. This pack is intended to give you more information about this role and our school's vision and ethos. It is an exciting time at Aylestone School as we build upon the strengths identified in our most recent Ofsted report and now is the time for us to add capacity to our collaborative, resourceful and innovative teaching team.

Aylestone School is located in the picturesque Cathedral City of Hereford, adjacent to the Herefordshire Colleges' campus for Further Education, and 10 minutes walk from the City railway station.

Aylestone is a caring school. Students and staff members matter, consequently, a happy and friendly, atmosphere has been developed combined with a sense of purpose and unity in striving to be the best that we can. We would thoroughly recommend any potential candidates visit the school to experience this for themselves, you will not be disappointed.

The successful candidate will be joining the school at an exciting time. Building on Aylestone's success the Local Authority are investing over £13 million to increase the number of pupils to 750. This includes the building of brand new block and sports hall. This expansion will allow Aylestone to retain its 'small school ethos' whilst expanding its curriculum offer and opportunity.

If you have the vision and passion to contribute to expanding our school, then we look forward to receiving your application.

Simon Robertson

Staff build warm and supportive relationships with pupils. They work hard to ensure that pupils are well prepared for life beyond school. As one parent commented in response to Ofsted's survey, 'staff genuinely care and make every effort to put parent and child worries at ease.'

Ofsted 2024

About the School

Based on a beautiful site, Aylestone School is a mixed 11-16 comprehensive school federated with two of our feeder primary schools, Broadlands and Withington. All three schools are led by one Executive Headteacher.

Aylestone is a thriving, collaborative and caring school with high aspirations for all students. We pride ourselves on being able to offer something different in the city. We are a smaller school, but big enough to offer the breadth of choice and opportunities that other schools do. We know all our children and have a school ethos based on mutual respect. Put simply, we are a happy, caring school, small enough to know each student, but also big enough to offer extensive choice and opportunities .

Our core belief is that children are treated as individuals, with personalised targets and support, and a real voice in their own education. Our federation of schools is committed to providing excellence in education.

Our aim is for children to leave for the next stage of their education with the confidence and aptitude to make their own valuable contribution to their community, for staff to recognise their own contribution to this development of children and parents to genuinely be able to support their son or daughter's education. We believe that everyone should have the opportunity to develop a love of life-long learning and through a strong sense of team and community we can achieve excellence together.

We are immensely proud of all of our students and their achievements through their time with us. We place a strong emphasis on the holistic development of each child as a valued individual. We provide a positive, challenging and exciting learning environment in which children flourish. We pride ourselves on relationships in the school. Children & staff are welcoming & friendly. We offer a broad and balanced curriculum and are immensely proud of successes in many areas. Our extra-curricular offer is wide and varied and many students are involved in charitable work and community projects both within school and the wider community.

The School was inspected in July of 2024 and graded 'good' for both behaviour and personal development, recognising the excellent work staff do. This grading continues the positive progress for Aylestone, which has seen the school repeatedly praised for improvements made following Ofsted monitoring inspections over recent years. We are very pleased the school has been graded good for behaviour and personal development, and that the improvements being made here continue to be acknowledged.

The inspectors made many very positive comments, including:

- "Staff build warm and supportive relationships with pupils. They work hard to ensure that pupils are well prepared for life beyond school. "
- "Pupils are polite and greet visitors warmly "
- "In lessons, pupils generally show a positive attitude to their learning and complete tasks well."
- "Pupils say that bullying is rare and that they have every confidence in staff to resolve issues should they occur "
- "The school's personal development curriculum is well thought through and age appropriate "
- "There is a well-planned careers programme in place. Right from Year 7, pupils have access to careers related learning including workshops and assemblies "

About the Role

An exciting opportunity exists to recruit a dynamic, creative permanent teacher of Humanities with the experience and ability to teach Geography to GCSE level. We are looking for an energetic, enthusiastic and inspiring practitioner with a real passion for all areas of Humanities especially History or Geography. The successful applicant will have a record of delivering consistently good to outstanding lessons.

The successful candidate will be working in the Humanities faculty, supported by the Head of Humanities. The faculty has a strong commitment to active, resource based enquiry. We offer you an exciting opportunity to work with, and enhance, a forward-thinking, highly successful and motivated team.

The Humanities Faculty is key to the provision of a broad, balanced and challenging educational experience for our students. The successful candidate will be able to generate positive attitudes from students and team members. They would be expected to deliver engaging and motivating lessons, setting high standards and expectations for all students, across the range of Humanities subjects at KS3 but essentially with the ability to offer specialist teaching at GCSE in History and Geography.

We are fortunate to have teachers within the faculty with wide ranging experience who teach well across their own specialist subjects and the Humanities. All staff members are enthusiastic, committed and hard working.

Teachers are supported in their development through the school's Achieving Excellence Together Programme where best practice is observed and shared openly with colleagues, with coaching support for teachers to develop their own practice.

Aylestone is federated with two feeder primary schools, Withington and Broadlands Primary Schools.

We are strongly committed to the partnerships with all local primaries and look to develop this further. Therefore, there may be opportunity to be a part of this partnership which would be a benefit to anyone for future employment.

In short, Aylestone is a lovely school and a really nice place to be in. This is a really exciting time to join the school, where the successful candidate can really have a big impact and be part of something special.

In many subjects, the curriculum is taught well. In mathematics and history, for example, teachers present new learning clearly and model tasks effectively " -
Ofsted 2024

Job Description

Job Title: Teacher of Humanities

Responsible to: The Faculty Lead— Humanities

Main Purpose

- Carry out teaching duties as appropriate in accordance with the Federation’s schemes of work
- To provide all students with a high quality learning programme, through which each individual is able to improve their own performance.
- To demonstrate a high level of expertise in the subject and an understanding of national requirements, as well as assessment criteria and procedures.
- To use baseline information to inform future practice.
- To manage resources effectively and to understand the need to balance subject specific needs with the needs of the whole Federation.

Main Duties and responsibilities

Teaching, setting and supervising work by students

- To teach a class, or classes, sets, groups or individual students, and to set tasks to be undertaken both at school and for homework.

Planning

- To plan and prepare courses, schemes of work and individual lessons, appropriate to the needs, interests, experience and existing knowledge of the students in the class.
- To contribute to curriculum planning.

Marking and recording

- To mark and assess students' work and to record their development, progress and attainment, both at school and elsewhere.
- Set and mark homework assignments in accordance with the published homework timetable and any agreed departmental procedure.

Main Duties and responsibilities (continued)

Discipline and relationships

- To maintain good order, discipline and respect for others among students.
- To promote understanding of the school's rules and values.
- To safeguard health and safety.
- To develop relationships with and between students conducive to optimum learning.

Communication with parents

- To build and maintain co-operative relationships with parents, and to communicate with them on students' learning and progress, drawing attention to special skills and talents as well as to problems or difficulties.

The classroom

- To maintain an attractive and stimulating classroom environment, and to contribute to displays in the school as a whole

Overall policy and review

- To take part in whole-federation reviews of policy and aims.

Reports

- To provide or contribute to oral and written assessments, reports and references, both at the federation and elsewhere, relating to the development and learning of individual students and groups of students.

Review

- To evaluate and review own teaching methods, materials and schemes of work, and to make changes as appropriate.

Professional Development

- To keep up-to-date with current educational thinking and practice, both by study and by attendance at courses, workshops and meetings, and take part in appraisals and reviews.

Any other duties deemed necessary by the Headteacher

This Job Description covers the main duties and responsibilities of the job. Other activities commensurate with this Job Description may from time to time be undertaken by the Job Holder

PERSON SPECIFICATION FOR Teacher—Humanities

Information for candidates: the person specification provides an outline of the experience, skills and abilities we expect the successful candidate to possess. You should match your own skills, experience and abilities to those listed below. Tell us in what way you have carried out the criteria asked for.

	Essential	Method of Assessment
Skills and Abilities	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Ability to teach to KS3 Humanities and a specialist Humanities subject at GCSE, in this instance, History or Geography. • Commitment to improving student learning and raising achievement. • Enthusiasm to inspire in students a desire to learn and participate. • Ability to communicate clearly and persuasively. • Well developed inter-personal skills and flexible approaches in using them with staff, students, parents and the wider community. • Interest in innovation in the classroom including interactive whiteboard skills. 	AF, I, SM, P
Qualifications and Training	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Appropriate teaching and academic qualifications, including degree and PGCE. 	AF, I, SM, P
Experience	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Experience of teaching Humanities across the full age and ability range of an 11-16 school, with proven success. • Experience of curriculum planning, assessment and moderation. • Experience of team work. • Proven record as a teacher whose students reach high standards of learning and achievement. • Able to enthuse, motivate and discipline students. • Experience in the use of ICT in the classroom with the skill to impart that expertise to others. • Successful track record of achieving school improvement in previous posts. • Evidence of continuing professional development (CPD). • Evidence of successfully introducing new ideas and leading educational innovation in current post. 	AF, I, SM, P

	Essential	Method of Assessment
Knowledge	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Wide ranging knowledge of current developments in the National Curriculum and its assessment. • Very good knowledge of inclusive curriculum and pastoral approaches to school improvement. • Awareness of current syllabus development. • Specific knowledge of innovative educational approaches which make a difference to student outcomes. • Clear knowledge of the educational challenges facing Aylestone School and of how these will be best met. 	AF, I, SM, P
Other Factors	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Enjoy working with children / young adults and the opportunities that this offers them. • Strong personal commitment to inclusive educational aims and policies. • Capacity to be a positive role model who will consistently promote high expectations amongst students and staff. • Strong personal commitment and drive to achieving improved outcomes for all students. • Pro-active and outward looking attitudes to the development of strong links with the wider community. • Willingness to reflect upon his / her experiences in a critical and constructive manner. • Fluency Duty - "The ability to converse at ease with members of the public and provide advice in accurate spoken English as relevant to the role is essential for this job." • Police clearance. 	AF, I, SM, P Enhanced DBS Check

Governors are keen to continue to recruit teachers of integrity, with a passion for their subject, and excellent interpersonal skills, to join a group of committed and dedicated teachers.

Should you wish to visit the school or talk to key staff prior to application then we would welcome the opportunity to meet you and show you around our school. If you would like to arrange such a visit, then please call the school office to arrange this, or to discuss the post over the phone with Mr Ben Dugdale, the Deputy Headteacher.

Application forms should be completed and returned along with a covering letter to hr@aylestone.hereford.sch.uk

“Aylestone is a small secondary school where everyone knows each other well. Staff build warm and supportive relationships with pupils. They work hard to ensure that pupils are well prepared for life beyond school. As one parent commented in response to Ofsted’s survey, ‘staff genuinely care and make every effort to put parent and child worries at ease.’ ”

Ofsted 2024

The Governing Body are committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and young people and vulnerable adults. The successful candidate will be subject to an enhanced disclosure through the Disclosure and Barring Service and additional recruitment checks