Do you want to work at an ambitious school with bright, well behaved and engaged learners? Are you interested in helping students to gain a deeper understanding of themselves and the world around them? An exciting opportunity has arisen for a passionate Teacher of Humanities to play a key role in shaping the humanities curriculum offering of our outstanding, multi-faith school as we grow the secondary phase of its development.

Unique features of this role are:

Nishkam School West London is a flagship school for our Trust, offering all-through provision on an expansive 11-acre green site. Opportunities like these are few and far between and will interest those with creative minds and high aspirations, seeking to inspire a new generation of children through a virtues-led, multi-faith curriculum. The journey will be one of leading a core curriculum area within this recently established institution to excellence and growing the team to capacity, which will be immensely rewarding for the right individual.

Background: Nishkam School West London is an innovative state of the art all-through 4-19 school. Nishkam's outstanding primary school opened in 2013 and the highly over-subscribed secondary phase opened in September 2018. The school is part of a successful Multi-Academy Trust (4 schools, 2 nurseries; 1 vocational college in Kenya).

- Leadership and management at all levels are of exceptionally high quality. Leaders constantly check the quality of teaching and learning and provide very good support for any teacher who needs to develop their practice.
- Exemplary leadership and management skills ensure that the school's values are central to developing pupils' learning and mind-set.
- The school's vision to 'offer excellence... and inspire children to learn' pervades the school. As a result, pupils are motivated and have high aspirations.

Ofsted-October 2016

As a Teacher of Humanities at Nishkam School West London, you will work in a pioneering group, Nishkam School Trust (NST). NST is one of the first multi-academy free school trusts in the UK. The Trust has opened two free schools in Birmingham (a primary in 2011 and a secondary in 2012), both of which are judged Ofsted Outstanding, and a third, a primary free school in Wolverhampton. We are looking for a highly committed and innovative humanities teacher to work in close collaboration with other colleagues in both the secondary and primary phases across the Trust.

NST has developed an inclusive virtues-led, multi-faith educational approach that nurtures pupils of all faiths and those of no particular faith. The Nishkam ethos is to help grow a selfless mindset, aspiring to excellence as well as going beyond ourselves to serve others, to create supportive communities and to realise our true potential. This pervades every aspect of the school. Below is just some of the feedback from our most recent staff surveys:

- The school environment is very calm and the behaviour of the pupils is good overall. Leadership team works hard and is approachable and supportive if you need any help or guidance.
- Regular staff and department meetings ensure all teachers are updated regularly to ensure high quality teaching is being delivered. Additionally, professional development training is provided as a means to guide and support teachers in the classroom. This helps teachers to discuss and explore different teaching strategies they may want to implement into their own teaching.
- Leaders at Nishkam are empathetic, compassionate and encourage excellence in a way that corresponds to individual ambitions.
- I am proud to work at this school and feel that SLT as a whole is really supportive and help me reach my goals.
