

Inspiring Teacher of ICT and Business

Location: The Ecclesbourne School, Wirksworth Road, Duffield, Derbyshire DE56 4GS

Position: Teacher of ICT (Key Stage 3) and/or Business Studies (GCSE and/or A Level)

Contract: Full-time, Permanent

Start Date: 1 January 2026 or 1 September 2026

Are you a passionate and innovative educator with a drive to empower students with the digital and entrepreneurial skills they need to thrive in the modern world? The Ecclesbourne School is seeking a dedicated teacher to join our supportive school.

About the Role:

This is a fantastic opportunity for a teacher who is enthusiastic about both the practical application of technology and the dynamic world of business. You will play a key role in:

- Inspiring a love for ICT at Key Stage 3:
Delivering engaging and practical lessons that build solid foundations in digital literacy, computer science, and online safety.
- Guiding success at GCSE and A Level:
Teaching Business Studies to examination classes, bringing to life topics from entrepreneurship and marketing to finance and economics, and achieving outstanding results.
- Fostering a culture of innovation:
Encouraging students to be critical thinkers, creative problem solvers, and confident users of technology.

We are looking for a colleague who:

- Holds Qualified Teacher Status (QTS) in the UK.
- Has a genuine passion for their subjects and the ability to make them relevant and exciting for all learners.
- Is an excellent classroom practitioner with a proven track record of, or the clear potential for, securing strong student progress.
- Can confidently teach ICT across Key Stage 3 and/or Business Studies at GCSE and/or A level.
- Is collaborative, resilient, and committed to contributing to our whole school ethos.

In return, we can offer you:

- Eager and motivated students who are ready to learn.
- Supportive and collaborative colleagues with a shared vision for success.
- Excellent facilities and resources to support outstanding teaching and learning.
- A positive and forward-thinking school community with a strong reputation.
- Professional Development opportunities for training and career development.
- Teachers' Pension Scheme with immediate membership.
- Wellbeing. We value our staff and recognise the on-going contributions they make to the continued success of the whole school.

- School admissions. Children of members of staff, with a minimum of two years' service at the school at the time of application, are including in our admissions criteria.

Our commitment to safeguarding: Our school is committed to ensuring the highest levels of safeguarding and promoting the welfare of our students, and we expect all our staff to share this commitment. We adopt a fair, robust, and consistent recruitment process which is in line with Keeping Children Safe in Education. This includes online checks for shortlisted candidates. All offers of employment will be conditional on a satisfactory enhanced Disclosure and Barring Service check, references, health check and, where applicable, a prohibition from teaching check.

The amendments to the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974 (exceptions) Order 1975 (2013 and 2020) provides that when applying for certain jobs and activities certain convictions are considered "protected". This means that they do not need to be disclosed to employers and, if they are disclosed, employers cannot take them into account. Guidance about whether a conviction or caution should be disclosed can be found on the Ministry of Justice Website and on the websites of charities NACRO and UNLOCK.

Our commitment to equality and diversity: As a school we are passionate about diversity and recognize that as individuals we all bring something unique to the role regardless of any protected characteristics, which is why we treat all our people equally, without compromise. We are committed to providing equality and fairness throughout our recruitment and employment practices and not discriminating on any grounds.
