

Teacher of Information Technology and Computer Science

Permanent full time post

(Would consider part time or job share applications)

Required from: 1st September 2021

Faringdon Community College (FCC) is a successful and well-established 11-18 co-educational secondary comprehensive school, which embraces the idea of lifelong learning and community education. The school has an excellent local reputation and is known for inspiring exciting teaching and learning where teachers are supported and encouraged to help every student, aiming to achieve individual success and realise their potential.

As a dynamic organisation, we are always looking for new ideas and ways forward. Our strong and motivated team of teaching and non-teaching staff are committed to providing the best education they can and have an energy and enthusiasm which makes FCC a rewarding place to work.

Faringdon Community College is part of the Faringdon Learning Trust, an eight school multi-academy trust, which was established on 1st April 2012. Our school roll is continuing to rise and, including sixth form, there are currently 1352 pupils on roll.

We are seeking to appoint a motivated, hardworking, enthusiastic and passionate teacher of IT, who can inspire young people. Our teachers provide specialist KS3, GCSE and A-level teaching to students aged 11-18. The successful applicant will be required to teach IT & Computing at KS3 and at least one of Creative Media and Computer Science at KS4. For a suitable candidate, there will also be the opportunity to teach Computer Science and IT at KS5. At KS4 we offer Level 1/2 Creative iMedia and GCSE Computer Science and at KS5 we offer AQA Computer Science and Cambridge Technicals in IT.

This is an excellent opportunity to join a small but established team and to benefit from working in a vibrant and supportive environment. A position where you will be able to make your own mark and be valued for your skills and qualities.

All applicants are welcome, including NQTs, as a full induction and support programme will be given. Although our preference would be for a full time appointment, consideration will be given to applicants who are seeking a part time or job share appointment.

If you have any questions, would like any further information or would like to arrange an informal visit to the school please contact our Trust HR Team, by emailing Recruitment@faringdonlearningtrust.org, who will put you in contact with the Subject Leader.

An application form and applicants' pack, giving further details for the above post, can be found on our website: <http://www.fccoxon.co.uk>. Please return your completed application form, along with a letter of interest outlining your suitability for the position, by 9am on Wednesday 21st April to Recruitment@faringdonlearningtrust.org

Closing date: 9am on Wednesday 21st April 2021

Faringdon Learning Trust is committed to safeguarding and protecting the welfare of children. All successful candidates will be required to undertake a DBS check, and attend safeguarding training as part of their job role.
