- A willingness to keep up to date developments in the subject area (Law: be aware of any changes to statutes, reform which may need to be incorporated into the curriculum) (PSYCH: up to date research findings of topics on the spec which can be used for evaluations)
- Develop key skills in the subject area.
- Scaffold, support students with a range of exam questions.
- Provide effective feedback with clear targets which support DIRT. To follow the school and departmental strategies on feedback and assessment.
- Set supervised study work.
- Have a clear understanding of the needs of all KS5 students, including those which special educational needs; gifted and talented; EAL; disabilities; and be able to use and evaluate distinctive teaching approaches to engage and support them.
- An awareness of ways to raise student attainment in Psych / Law

Professional development is a strength here, thanks to our Teaching School. We offer a flexible CPD programme which staff can tailor to their own needs which includes coaching and training for new entrants to the profession and to support career returners. We are very happy to discuss flexible working arrangements including part-time working and job-sharing.

We welcome visits to our school but if you would like to have an informal telephone call with our Head of department, please email recruitment@maidenerleghtrust.org.

The Trust reserves the right to interview and appoint before the closing date.
