The College

Our mission at Rye College is to 'create bright futures for all'. With this in mind, we work hard to ensure that every child is happy and well supported on their educational journey with us. We want every child to grow and flourish in our care.

Our college is set in the attractive heart of 1066 country and is a place where students feel safe and have space to learn. We pride ourselves on being a close knit community where students are known as individuals and where their talents are nurtured.

We are part of a family of schools that serve the young people of Rye from two to sixteen years of age, truly making us a 'local community college'. We are driven by a pursuit of high academic standards regardless of start points and a desire for all students to experience an exceptional education.

Our aim is to challenge every learner to exceed their own expectations of themselves; create a can-do culture and the resilience to excel; include all members of our community through shared endeavour; and nurture diverse skills, talents and abilities whilst celebrating excellence.

Since November 2018, Rye College has been part of Aquinas - an educational trust of eleven schools in the south-east; we believe our students will benefit enormously from our shared ambition to excel. We are proud to be working together with Aquinas to build on our reputation for supporting students in realising their potential and going on to lead fruitful and productive lives.

As an organisation we focus on the professional expertise of our teachers and associates, providing continuing professional learning for colleagues in all roles. We believe our students benefit from creative approaches to teaching and a shared ambition to succeed. We are proud of the positive reputation our schools have for supporting youngsters in realising their potential and going on to lead fruitful and productive lives.

- Dealing effectively with routine faculty organisation and administrative matters;
- Ensuring that faculty records and handbook are properly kept and updated when necessary;
- Working productively and co-operatively with students, families, colleagues and leaders.
- Providing rigorous, systematic and visionary leadership to build an effective faculty team.

Finance and Resources:

- Delivering value for money (within any cost centre allocation) by considering:
 - Economy: minimising the cost of resources used or required – spending less;
 - Efficiency: the relationship between the output from goods or support and the resources to produce them – spending well;
 - Effectiveness: the relationship between the intended and actual results of spending – spending wisely;
 - Equity: the extent to which support is available to and reaches students as intended – spending fairly. Some students may receive differing levels of support for reasons other than differences in their levels of need.
 - Ensuring that the working environment is safe, suitable, attractive and well cared for.

Responsibilities are likely to change over time and you will be expected to perform duties of a similar nature such as the headteacher may reasonably require.

Appraisal and Professional Development

Every colleague is part of the college's appraisal programme. New employees are allocated an appraiser who sets agreed objectives for the year. The appraiser monitors and reviews performance including classroom teaching. The college supports the continuing professional learning of all colleagues, to ensure that their expertise is being kept up to date. New Qualified Teachers are supported with a tailored programme.

Responsibilities are likely to change over time and you will be expected to perform duties of a similar nature such as the headteacher may reasonably require.
