Leeds City Academy

Principal's Welcome

We are delighted that you are considering joining Leeds City Academy.

We are at an exciting stage in our journey. As one of the most rapidly improving schools in West Yorkshire, we are driven by a clear moral purpose: to secure the very best for every student – academically and through exceptional personal development. Our 'In Partnership' ethos is the foundation of our success. It shapes how we lead, how we teach and how we work together. We are proud of the culture we have built – ambitious, inclusive and rooted in high expectations for all.

In December 2024, Ofsted recognised the strength of our academy:

"Pupils thrive at this happy and inclusive school. They know that the school dedicates itself to helping them to become the best that they can be."

Inspectors also noted:

"Pupils rise to the very high expectations the school has for them. Their behaviour is impressive. They conduct themselves very well in lessons."

These outcomes reflect the commitment and expertise of our staff. We invest in our people, champion professional growth and value collaboration at every level.

If you are passionate about transforming life chances, thrive in a values-driven culture and want to make a genuine difference, we would be delighted to hear from you.

About Leeds City Academy

We are a vibrant and ambitious secondary school, proud to be part of the White Rose Academies Trust. We serve a richly diverse community and are committed to delivering a high-quality education alongside outstanding personal development.

In recent years, the academy has undergone significant transformation, driven by strong leadership, clear systems and consistently high expectations. Today, our culture is calm, purposeful and aspirational.

Our community reflects the diversity of modern Leeds. The scale of this diversity, including the number of students on roll, languages spoken, nationalities represented and the proportion of students with English as an additional language, is illustrated below. We see this as a strength that enriches learning and broadens horizons.

At the heart of the academy is our 'In Partnership' culture. It underpins our relationships with students, families and colleagues and ensures that collaboration, respect and ambition remain central to all that we do.

Leeds City Academy is a school where staff are supported to develop, students are encouraged to excel and high standards are the norm. We are proud of how far we have come and ambitious about where we are going next.

Job Description and Person Specification

Post Reference: 2797

Job Title: Teacher of Maths

Academy Name: Leeds City Academy

Grade: MPS / UPS

Bonus: A £2,000 recruitment and retention bonus is payable upon successful completion of Year 1

Hours: Full Time

Accountable to: Director of Maths

Job Description

Role:

This exciting role provides the opportunity for a committed and ambitious teacher to develop their practice, knowledge, and skills through working within a strong and committed team of highly skilled teachers, lead practitioners and leaders. The current maths team, which has grown and developed across the last two years, consists of leaders, and lead practitioners with very strong and well publicised reputations and acclaim at a city, regional and national level.

You will teach maths to key stage 3 and 4 students achieving positive outcomes for all groups of students. A key feature of this work will also include working with and supporting colleagues in developing their practice in order to secure outstanding quality of education across the whole maths team.

NB: All post-holders at the White Rose Academies Trust are responsible for improving the outcomes for learners and upholding the ethos of the academies. Keeping Children Safe in Education and the guidance for Safer Working Practices directs the work of every adult working at or associated with the White Rose Academies Trust.

Duties and Responsibilities:

General Teachers – Expectation of all Academy staff:

- Ensure good and better progress for all students within groups taught through the planning and preparation of high-quality lessons which engage, motivate, and support learners.
- Strive to deliver a consistently good standard of teaching.
- Take responsibility within own teaching areas and in the execution of general duties for the creation of a positive climate for learning which results in positive, respectful attitudes from students.
- Consistently apply the Academy Positive Behaviour policy to support all colleagues in establishing high standards of behaviour from students, and in order that students have parity of treatment and expectations in all areas of the academy.
- Assess, record and report on the development, progress, and attainment of students.
- Contribute to the planning, design and production of good quality teaching material and resources, appropriate to age and ability, in accordance with the subject development plan. Contribute towards and lead on aspects of departmental CPD in conjunction with other staff.

- Be a form tutor for a specified group of students, establishing the rapport necessary to support their social, emotional and citizenship education and development.
 - Make a strong contribution to agreed personal, social, health and economic (PSHCE)/small, spiritual, moral, social and cultural (SMSE) areas, such as careers in the curriculum.
 - Contribute to the wider life of the academy by participating in the provision of the peak performance and enrichment programme.
 - Attend meetings, including parents' consultation sessions, and fulfil duties on rotas as specified in the staff handbook.
 - Implement all academy policies with regard to registration, student absence, student uniform, use of planners and other routines detailed in the staff handbook.
 - Observe academy rules relating to the safeguarding of students, health and safety requirements, and equality policies.
 - Participate in full staff and area meetings, actively contributing to academy decision making and consultation procedures.
 - Participate fully in the Academy Performance Management process, engaging in professional development activities which enhance personal performance, fulfil personal potential, and contribute effectively to the implementation of the academy's goal to be an outstanding place of learning.
 - Uphold the professional standards of dress, behaviour, attitudes, and team spirit which will ensure that the academy is a pleasant, positive place to learn and work.

Equal Opportunities:

- Promote equality of opportunity so that all children, young people, and families can access and benefit from our Trust.
 - Support the wellbeing, safety, and success of all students and young people, enabling positive educational and life outcomes.

Professional Responsibilities:

- Uphold the professional standards expected of all academy staff in all interactions with colleagues, students, parents/carers, and the wider community.
- Act in accordance with the values, aims, and mission of the academy and White Rose Academies Trust.

- Contribute positively to the continuous improvement of the academy and to personal professional development through participation in training, meetings, appraisals, and by sharing ideas for improvement.
- Work collaboratively as a positive and supportive member of the team, recognising when to seek advice, guidance, or support.
- Apply academy and Trust policies and procedures consistently in all aspects of the role.
- Engage in reflective practice and appropriate continuing professional development (CPD) to improve effectiveness and maintain high standards.
- Contribute to the wider life, ethos, and objectives of the academy, including attendance at relevant meetings, training days, and events as required.

Safeguarding, Compliance and Conduct:

- Comply with all academy and Trust policies and procedures, including those relating to safeguarding and child protection, health and safety, security, confidentiality, and data protection, and report any concerns promptly to the appropriate person.
- Take responsibility for safeguarding children and young people and for promoting their welfare, in line with statutory guidance and academy procedures.
- Maintain appropriate professional boundaries and conduct at all times.

Whilst every effort has been made to explain the main duties and responsibilities of the post, not all individual tasks can be identified. The job description may be amended by the Principal or Accounting Officer to reflect or anticipate changes to the role, commensurate with the grade and job title.

The post-holder may be required to undertake additional duties, as reasonably requested, to ensure the effective operation of the academy.

The Governors and Principals of White Rose Academies Trust are committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and young people and to ensuring that safer recruitment practices are in place.

White Rose Academies Trust values diversity and seeks to create a workforce that reflects the communities it serves. Applications are welcome from all individuals regardless of sex, sexual orientation, race, religion or belief, marital status, age, or disability.

White Rose Academies Trust expects all staff and volunteers to share this commitment. Appointments will be subject to Safer Recruitment procedures, including an enhanced Disclosure and Barring Service (DBS) check. A criminal record will not necessarily prevent employment; this will depend on the nature of the offence and the circumstances.

This role involves contact with children and constitutes regulated activity. It is an offence to apply for this role if you are barred from engaging in regulated activity relating to children.

What our people say...

"My experience at Leeds City Academy has been a very good one and I have felt really supported from when I started here by a very good pastoral team, I feel like I have thrived since year 7 and I am proud to be part of a very diverse cohort of students."

Dante Year 9

"I joined the Trust as a Project Officer, but once I got to know the students, I wanted a role working closely with them and the pastoral team. LCA and the Trust supported me every step of the way, and I now love my role as Safeguarding Officer and non-teaching governor."

Phoebe Horsman Safeguarding Officer

"I initially joined through an external organisation on a temporary basis. From day one, I felt part of the team, so when the opportunity came up to interview for a permanent role, I didn't hesitate."
