Are you committed to helping young people in a special needs environment to stay healthy, safe and prepare for life and work in modern Britain?

Braidwood is a very successful secondary school for Deaf young people aged 11-19 in purpose built accommodation. Our young people come from across the Midland region and represent the full academic spectrum, from unit awards up to GCSE and Level 3 BSL. Some of our students have additional needs including communication and interaction; cognition and learning; social, emotional and mental health difficulties; and sensory and/or physical needs. All our pupils are taught to achieve their best from their starting points and all success is celebrated. We pursue a Total Communication approach which means we fit our methods of communication to the needs of each learner.

All our pupils primary need is sensory, we promote positive deaf identity and achievement for all.
