

Teacher of Maths

Highly Competitive Salary

From September 2025

The academies are seeking to appoint a teacher of maths, who is an experienced, excellent classroom practitioner with a passionate belief in the ability for all to succeed.

The successful candidate will be expected to deliver maths at KS3 and KS4 level. We are looking for a conscientious, dedicated team-player who has excellent subject knowledge and a passion for maths with the ability to enthuse students.

We value our staff highly and treat workload very seriously. Our systems are high leverage, ensuring you can really focus on your core purpose – teaching, in a sustainable way, unhindered by bureaucracy or poor behaviour.

Closing date: Monday 3 February 2025

Interviews: Dates to be confirmed - early applications can be called to interview before the closing date (we strongly recommended that candidates submit their application as soon as possible).

Glenmoor & Winton Academies

High Achievement – High Standards

Part of United Learning

We offer flexible working, including at least one personal day per year, and offer a wide range of CPD opportunities for staff pooled from a wealth of experience and expertise both in the academies and across the United Learning group.

The academies value diversity and inclusion and are committed to creating and sustaining a more diverse workforce. We welcome applications from professionals of minority ethnic origin and from majority ethnic professionals who share our commitment to inclusion and diversity.

Glenmoor and Winton Academies are two outstanding academies and the highest performing nonselective schools in Bournemouth, Poole and Christchurch and would welcome any potential applicant visiting the Academies and meeting the Principal prior to applying. If you would like to take up this opportunity, please contact the Principal's PA, Di Cripps on dcripps@glenmoorandwinton.org.uk

Glenmoor and Winton Academies are part of United Learning. When you join United Learning, you can be confident that you will receive the opportunities, guidance and materials you need to be the very best teacher you can be. As a long-established group of schools, stretching from the North West to the South Coast, one of the many benefits of joining us is the breadth and depth of resources and support available. With a shared curriculum, subject advisors, a national pool of peers, coaching, mentoring and individual CPD plans, your teaching career will develop and grow as much as you want it to. The strength of our group is determined by our people, which is why we seek to recruit and support the very best educators, with the skills and enthusiasm to inspire our young people. We believe that diversity drives innovation and are determined to build a culture where difference is valued and celebrated. In creating a workforce that reflects the communities we serve, we are committed to continuing to improve the diversity of staff within each of our schools and central teams. United Learning has also teamed up with 'Perkbox' to provide employees with a great selection of flexible rewards including salary sacrifice schemes and access to a variety of retail discounts.

The Academies are committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of all children and young people and expects all staff and volunteers to share this commitment. Therefore, all applicants must be willing to undergo child protection screening, including checks with past employers and an Enhanced Disclosure via the DBS. To comply with the Immigration, Asylum and Nationality Act 2006, all prospective employees will be required to supply evidence of eligibility to work in the UK.
