

MATHS TEACHER
MPS (Outer London)
Required from January 2023

Would you like to use your Maths skills teaching highly motivated students in a welcoming and supportive environment? We're looking to appoint a teacher of Maths who has the subject knowledge and desire to inspire our extremely engaged, articulate and diverse student body. The school greatly values the contribution that the study of Maths brings to its curriculum offer, being the most popular subject at A level, and as an enabler to a wide range of Higher Education and career options and to the all-round development of the students, helping them flourish as global citizens.

In the summer, the department supported 97% of students to achieve a level 7-9 at GCSE and 97% of students an A*-B at A level. The Department provides both Maths and Further Maths at A Level and many of our students go on to study Maths or related subjects at Oxbridge and other leading universities.

Early career teachers are very welcome to apply - we support the development of new teachers through an excellent ECT training programme and the Maths department is very supportive in its approach.

Candidates suitable for the role will:

- be confident in teaching Maths to high achieving students
- be keen to develop their subject knowledge in all facets of Maths at A level
- be passionate about personal and professional development and demonstrates a willingness to engage with the findings of evidence-based research through our whole school CPD programme.
- help extend and enrich students' school experiences beyond the curriculum
- have the ability to communicate effectively with staff, students and parents

We can offer:

- an Ofsted recognised 'Outstanding' school – October 2021
- the opportunity to join a highly successful Maths department with a wide range of experience and expertise
- a stimulating and creative environment in a school where extra curricular activities flourish
- a two week October half term
- a CPD provision tailored to your needs focusing on areas of research and development
- a diverse workplace, with an engaged student and staff community who are currently collaborating on a review of the school's approach to equality
- a supportive environment where the work-life balance of teachers is proactively supported
- numerous other benefits (please see our attached information pack)
