An Introduction to Bullers Wood School for Girls

The School

Bullers Wood School for Girls is a highly successful comprehensive 11 – 19 girls' school with boys admitted to the sixth form. We are significantly oversubscribed, with admissions from over 50 primaries, and enjoy an excellent reputation in the community.

The number on roll is 1557, including 407 students in the mixed sixth form. We serve a very supportive community, and parents/carers have a choice of Bullers Wood School for Girls as a comprehensive school or selective education within Bromley and other LAs (Bexley, Kent). The proportion of students eligible for free school meals is below the national average. About a fifth of the total roll is from an ethnic minority background and some 20 languages are spoken. Very few students are learning English as an additional language. The behaviour of students is excellent, with all keen to learn and succeed.

In 2025, 80% of students achieved 5+ GCSE's at 9-4 including English and Maths, and 46% of A level results were graded A* - B.

The staff at Bullers Wood School for Girls are friendly, hardworking and conscientious. We actively promote continuing professional development for all staff, in line with the needs of the individual and those of the School. We offer a full and comprehensive induction and ongoing support programme for all new staff. ECTs are allocated a dedicated mentor to support them through their ECT years.

The School is a founder member of the highly regarded Bromley Schools Collegiate Initial Teacher Training Collegiate which enables our staff to share their expertise and good practice with others. We also train teachers through the Graduate Teacher Programme.

Twenty-two acres of woodland and landscaped grounds surround Bullers Wood House, a mansion with interior design by William Morris and exterior by Ernest Newton – both leading Victorian designers. This makes it unique, creating a high-quality environment and atmosphere which students enjoy and remember.

Our Ethos

Our purpose is to develop well qualified, confident and appreciative individuals who show tolerance and co-operation and are ready to play positive roles in the international community.

Expectations

At Bullers Wood School for Girls, we expect our Teaching Staff to:

- Have a passion for education and be open to innovative approaches in everyday aspects of school life
 - Be passionate about their subject area and lifelong learning

- Be committed to securing the best outcomes for all students in the school
- Offer enrichment and extra-curricular experiences related to their subject area and beyond
- Contribute to the overall development of the school
- Be flexible in their approach, adapting to new challenges

In return, we will offer you:

- The opportunity to be part of a forward-thinking team
- The opportunity to work with pastoral and subject leaders to create an exciting and engaging curriculum
- Enhanced professional and career development opportunities
- The opportunity to work across both schools in our Trust

The Role

Job title: Teacher of Media Studies

Reports to: Head of Media Studies

Start Date: January 2027

This is an excellent opportunity for an outstanding, ambitious and passionate Teacher of Media Studies to join the team.

Overview

To deliver high-quality, engaging and challenging Media Studies teaching across Key Stages 4 and 5, enabling students to develop a strong understanding of media industries, audiences, representations, language and contexts.

The successful candidate will inspire students to become critical, creative and confident media practitioners and analysts, while contributing positively to the wider life and development of the department and the Sixth Form.

Key Responsibilities

Teaching and Learning

- Plan and deliver engaging, well-structured lessons in Media Studies at GCSE and A Level/Sixth Form.
 - Teach a broad range of media forms, including print, television, film, online and social media, advertising, magazines, music video and other relevant contemporary media.
 - Develop students' ability to analyse media products critically and apply relevant theoretical concepts and terminology.

- Support students in developing practical production skills, including planning, research, photography, filming, editing, design and digital production where appropriate.
- Differentiate teaching effectively to meet the needs of students of differing abilities and backgrounds.
- Set appropriate homework, coursework and independent study activities.
- Assess students' work accurately and provide timely, constructive feedback.
- Track student progress and implement appropriate interventions where required.
- Prepare students effectively for GCSE and A Level examinations and coursework/non-examined assessment.

Sixth Form Responsibilities

- Teach and support students undertaking Media Studies at post-16 level.
- Develop students' independence, academic confidence and ability to undertake extended critical and analytical work.
- Provide effective guidance on coursework, independent research and examination preparation.
- Contribute to Sixth Form enrichment, including academic mentoring, university and careers guidance where appropriate.
- Encourage students to develop the skills required for progression to higher education, apprenticeships, employment and further study.

The successful candidate will also be a form tutor.

Classroom Teacher Responsibilities:

Core purposes of post

- To provide positive support and guidance with regard to the personal, academic, social and moral development of all students.
- To provide a high-quality educational experience for all students.
- To help the school achieve its purpose, aims and values

General Duties and Responsibilities

- To carry out the duties of a School Teacher as set out in the School Teachers Pay and Conditions Document.
 - To continue to meet the Professional Standards for Teachers in England
 - To follow school, faculty and departmental procedures.

- Be aware of and actively promote the school's aims, values, priorities, targets and action plans.
- Have a secure knowledge and understanding of specialist subject(s)
- Have a detailed knowledge of the relevant aspects of the students' National Curriculum and other statutory requirements.
- Understand progression in specialist subject(s)
- Cope securely with subject-related questions which students raise and know about students' common misconceptions and mistakes in their specialist subject(s).

Planning and setting expectations

- Identify clear teaching objectives, content, lesson structures and sequences appropriate to the subject matter and the students being taught as identified in the school's Teaching and Learning policy
- Set appropriate and demanding expectations for students' learning and motivation.
- Set and monitor clear targets for students' learning, building on prior attainment.

Teaching and managing student learning

- Ensure effective teaching of whole classes, groups and individuals so that teaching objectives are met, pace and challenge are maintained, and best use is made of teaching time.
- Use teaching methods which keep students engaged, including stimulating students' intellectual curiosity, effective questioning and response, clear presentation and good use of resources.
- Participate in preparing and presenting students for public examinations
- Identify students who have special educational needs, and implement and keep records
- Identify students who are gifted and talented and provide appropriate stimuli

Assessment and evaluation

- Assess how well learning objectives have been achieved and use this assessment and school provided data on a regular basis for future teaching and target-setting.
- Keep regular records of student progress
- Set homework in accordance with the School's homework policy
- Mark and monitor students' class and homework providing constructive oral and written feedback, setting targets for students' progress.
- Understand the demands expected of students in relation to the National Curriculum, KS4 and post-16 courses.
- Record and report on student progress, following school and departmental policy.

Behaviour Management

- Set high expectations for students' behaviour, establishing and maintaining a good standard of discipline through well-focused teaching and through positive and productive relationships, following the school systems.

- Consistently apply the school's Behaviour Management policy, encouraging positive behaviour, using the classroom code and taking appropriate action in cases of indiscipline

Relationships with parents and the wider community

- Prepare and present informative reports to parents.
- Attend parents' evenings and Open Evenings as required
- Recognise that learning takes place outside the school context and provide opportunities to develop students' understanding by relating their learning to real and work-related examples.
- Be prepared to liaise with agencies responsible for students' welfare.

Management of performance and development

- Take responsibility for own professional development and to keep up-to-date with research and developments in pedagogy and in the subjects taught, within the context of the School Development Plan.
- Understand professional responsibilities in relation to school policies and practices.
- Set a good example to the students in presentation and personal and professional conduct.
- Evaluate own teaching critically and use this to improve effectiveness.
- Participate in school system of performance management
- Participate in arrangements for further training and professional development, including INSET
- Attend and participate in faculty/departmental and other meetings as required.

Relationships with colleagues

- Establish and maintain effective working relationships with colleagues including support staff.
- Advise and co-operate with all colleagues on the preparation and development of courses of study, teaching materials, teaching programmes, methods of teaching, assessment and pastoral arrangements

Resources

- Select and make good use of textbooks, ICT, DVD/video, internet and other learning resources which enable teaching objectives to be met.

Health and Safety

- Be familiar with and comply with the School's Health and Safety policies
- Be responsible for the health and safety of students when they are authorised to be on school premises and when engaged in authorised activities elsewhere
- Prepare risk assessments as appropriate
- Take class register on SIMS and inform the office of any concerns

Other

- Undertake any other professional requirements specific to this post.
