

Teacher of Modern Foreign Languages with Additional Responsibilities

Teachers' Main Pay Scale

TLR2

Full Time

Required from September 2022

Ormiston Victory Academy is seeking to appoint an enthusiastic and dedicated Teacher of Modern Foreign Languages, specialising in Spanish but able to offer French or German as an additional language. The successful applicant will be an outstanding professional who takes pride in their work and is determined to develop the teaching of Languages so that students of all abilities enjoy their learning and are motivated to succeed.

This position offers a fulfilling opportunity to be part of a successful, friendly and dedicated team committed to ensuring every student achieves their true potential.

We are looking for a talented teacher who:

- Has a real love for languages, with a special gift of communicating that passion.
- Is dynamic, innovative, self-motivated and able to inspire others.
- Has the ability to teach outstanding and creative lessons across the age and ability range.
- Is committed to raising standards of attainment and developing the success of the department.
- Is willing to develop the delivery of languages to 'A' Level standard.
- Enjoys working as part of a team and demonstrates reflective practice through the high expectations they have of themselves and the students.

The MFL department has a reputation for excellence reflecting the strong quality of teaching and learning. The post offers a fulfilling opportunity to be part of a successful, friendly and dedicated team committed to ensuring every student achieves their true potential.

The academy incorporates the successful and growing Lord Nelson Sixth Form College. We are proud to be sponsored by Ormiston Academies Trust and the successful candidate would benefit from the opportunities which arise as a result of this.

This position is open to newly qualified or experienced teachers and is well suited to someone who enjoys teaching creatively and passionately. We offer an excellent induction package for all new staff, led by a member of the senior leadership team and supported by personal mentors. There is also the possibility of a significant Academy wide responsibility, which will be discussed with suitable candidates.

If you are interested in being at the leading edge of education, believe that all young people can achieve high standards and are prepared to work tirelessly to ensure their success; we want to hear from you.

We would encourage candidates to explore our website for more information about Victory Academy and view our virtual tours. We would encourage early application as we may interview sooner.

Closing date for applications: 9:00am on Monday 16th May 2022

Interviews expected to be held by: Thursday 19th May 2022

Applications are via the Ormiston Academies Trust Careers Website <https://oatcareers.co.uk>
