Teacher of Music

'Every Individual is in a great school'

Letter from the Headteacher

Thank you for your interest in Bridgnorth Endowed. As Headteacher, I am delighted to welcome you to our thriving and successful school.

We place great value on our students' pastoral and academic development, and we aim to create a genuine and positive atmosphere that can be felt and that resonates throughout each day, and in every part of the school.

We aim to ensure that every young person achieves their personal best by providing an education that challenges them intellectually and offers them a wide range of opportunities to develop and stretch their unique talents and interests.

We are incredibly proud of our school and our community. We have dedicated and happy students and staff, both of whom work together to achieve excellent results. Bridgnorth Endowed students thrive during their time here and visitors frequently comment on students' outstanding manners and behaviour.

We expect and give the very best education to every child as it is our mission to challenge and support our young people to achieve their potential. We believe that the academy's values of kindness, trust, resilience, aspiration and respect ensure that every student develops into a confident, successful and happy young adult, ready to face the future.

We are a small school and students in each year have an academic education that is student-centred and tailored to their individual needs. We have high expectations of positive learning behaviours of all our students and expect all to uphold the school standards. We have a dedicated team of teachers and support staff who will work tirelessly to provide pupils with the support they will need to be successful in their education.

If you share our values and aims and are interested in a rewarding career at Bridgnorth Endowed then I invite you to pay us a visit, meet some of our inspirational staff and students, and spend some time with us in school. I look forward to receiving your application.

About Our School

Founded in 1503, Bridgnorth Endowed School has a rich and long history in education. Today, it is a vibrant non-selective co-educational secondary school that offers great facilities, high quality teaching and an exciting choice of extra-curricular activities.

The school benefits from a thirty-acre campus and its own on-site leisure centre, with all the convenience of a town centre location.

The school benefits from 30 acres of beautiful grounds with sports pitches and a historic Old Hall, its own on-site leisure centre, and the convenience of a town centre location in the heart of Bridgnorth.

Smaller than the average sized secondary school, Bridgnorth Endowed currently has approximately 600 pupils, which means that students, staff and parents really get to know each other.

The secure campus is a safe and healthy place for young people to learn. It provides a calm and caring setting in which everyone works together in an atmosphere of mutual respect.

Bridgnorth Endowed is a truly extraordinary school that combines its solid 500-year history with superb modern facilities and a progressive approach to education.

The teaching focuses on creating an educational experience that fires up the students' love of learning and boosts participation in the fantastic choice of extra-curricular activities available.

Central to this is the desire to develop well-rounded young people who are able to discover their special talents and nurture strong relationships with their peers in an environment where they can thrive.

Our Vision

To provide an outstanding education that inspires all of our young people to excel in the classroom and beyond.

Our Mission

To challenge and support our young people to fulfil their potential and to discover their unique talents in an educational setting where they will thrive and be happy.

Our Aims

To support our vision and mission, we have two key aims:

1. To support our young people to be confident, resilient and independent, and develop strength of character.
2. To support our young people to develop detailed knowledge and skills, so that they achieve well.

Our Ethos

We believe that our vision, mission and aims are best achieved by providing pupils with a calm, orderly and challenging learning environment, underpinned by traditional values of discipline, courtesy and good manners. We believe that all children can succeed and we have high academic ambition for all of our pupils.

Our Core Values

This outlines our core values and how we like everyone to approach 'School Life' here at Bridgnorth Endowed

We strongly believe in providing an excellent education and, most importantly, we aim to encourage students to be successful and happy in a competitive world, and to build a bright future for themselves.

Faculty Information

Creative Arts Department

The Creative Arts Department at Bridgnorth Endowed consists of three teachers – an art teacher, a drama teacher and a music teacher. We are looking to recruit an enthusiastic and outstanding music teacher to join our team.

Mission

At Bridgnorth Endowed school, our mission is to bring the pupils a broad musical curriculum, allowing for all avenues of music being explored while maintaining and developing the learners' musical understanding and skills.

Aims

The music curriculum at Bridgnorth Endowed school is designed to help further pupils learning by inspiring development towards the subject. Throughout the music curriculum, pupils will develop creativity independent learning, team work, time management skills and confidence to enable the best outcomes for the learners.

Music at the school allows exposure to cultures related to the styles, composers, and performers from historic and modern-day periods in music. Every pupil will have to opportunity to be able to explore these areas of music through composing, appraising, and performing.

About our Trust

The 3-18 Education Trust is currently made up of eight schools and derives its name from the age range of the pupils and students who attend those schools. We have an inclusive ethos, defined by age and we recognise that education is a continuous process, secured through consistent values and a strong transition (through the key stages).

Our Vision:

To ensure every individual is in a great school.

Our Mission:

To celebrate the diverse nature, culture and identity of our individual schools, whilst enjoying the benefit of the team, so that each school is reciprocal in their support for one another and achieves together.

Our Values:

- Accomplished: to provide high quality education and training for all
- Resilient: to be solution focused and able to intelligently manage challenges
- Compassionate: to show care and understanding towards others

Not only do we pursue the important dimension of achieving the best results for each student regardless of their starting point, but we also believe strongly that education is about developing well-rounded individuals who are ready, willing and able to make their contribution to society.

Please take a look at our Trust website <https://www.3-18education.co.uk/> for more details on what we offer. For information about each of our schools, please read on or click on the below links.
