Dear Applicant,

Thank you for taking the time to consider applying for the post of Music Teacher at The Cheadle Academy. As its Principal, I would like to share with you some of the factors that attracted me to work here. The Cheadle Academy is a popular 11-18 inclusive comprehensive school serving the close knit community of Cheadle and the surrounding villages.

The whole community takes a keen interest and pride in the achievements of its students. Our staffing compliment is 28 teachers and 37 support staff. We have 470 students on role and our own Cheadle Sixth Form College, offering a wide range of A Levels and some vocational courses to support the students of Cheadle and the surrounding area.

There is an emphasis on a caring, inclusive academy in which all staff take responsibility for the protection and safety of our students. We are an equal opportunities employer and aim to provide equality of opportunity and access to all. The Cheadle Academy has a strong track record of collaborative work with our primary feeder schools, other institutions and groups of school, which will continue to develop in the future.

Our recent Ofsted inspection in May 2019, has rated the academy as Good in every aspect of its work.

- “The headteacher and senior staff are relentless in their determination to make this school a beacon of excellence in the local community and provide the very best education for its pupils.”
- “Pupils are proud of their school and are courteous and show respect for each other and for visitors”
- “The school is extremely pupil-centred. Pupils lie at the heart of everything and they are extremely well cared for and supported.”
- “There is an exceptional culture of safeguarding in the school”
- “Leaders have created a fully inclusive school, where pupils feel valued, supported and nurtured”
- “The behaviour of pupils is good”
- “Pupils are proud of their school and speak highly of it, wearing their uniform with pride”.
- “The school is a calm, orderly environment. Pupils are polite and courteous.”
- “Teaching is good”
- “Students’ outcomes are good”

Are you a dynamic and inspirational person? We are looking for a Music teacher with the drive and ability to support innovation and progress, who puts the best interests of students at the forefront of their work in Music and supporting student engagement beyond the classroom in extra-curricular opportunities.

The ideal candidate for this position will be self-motivated and ambitious, whilst remaining committed to working collaboratively with colleagues at all levels across the organisation. You will have experience of raising standards, supporting student progress and through your teaching and the vision to inspire others to do the same. We welcome applicants from a the range of different disciplines with the opportunity to teach across all Key Stages.

Every child's journey through our Academy is important to us. We intend to ensure that every child receives nothing but the highest levels of academic and pastoral support, as we build a school dedicated to achieving my underlying philosophy of promoting success through partnership and challenge. Please review the recruitment pack before completing your application form. Please do not send a CV with your application form.

I would to thank you for your interest in this post, and our Academy, and wish you every success with your application.

Yours sincerely,

Job Description

JOB TITLE: Music Teacher

JOB PURPOSE:

To support in the co-ordination all aspects of the teaching and learning programmes for Music opportunities within the academy.

LINE MANAGEMENT:

Responsible to: Leader of Creative Arts

TEACHERS STANDARDS:

Teachers must make the education of their students their first concern, and are accountable for achieving the highest possible standards in work and conduct. Teachers act with honesty and integrity; have strong subject knowledge, keep their knowledge and skills as teachers up-to-date and are self-critical; forge positive professional relationships; and work with parents in the best interests of their students.

A teacher must:

1. Set high expectations which inspire, motivate and challenge students

- establish a safe and stimulating environment for students, rooted in mutual respect
- set goals that stretch and challenge students of all backgrounds, abilities and dispositions
- demonstrate consistently the positive attitudes, values and behaviour which are expected of students.

2. Promote good progress and outcomes by students

- be accountable for students' attainment, progress and outcomes
- be aware of students' capabilities and their prior knowledge, and plan teaching to build on these
- guide students to reflect on the progress they have made and their emerging needs
- demonstrate knowledge and understanding of how students learn and how this impacts on teaching
- encourage students to take a responsible and conscientious attitude to their own work and study.

3. Demonstrate good subject and curriculum knowledge

- have a secure knowledge of the relevant subject(s) and curriculum areas, foster and maintain students' interest in the subject, and address misunderstandings
- demonstrate a critical understanding of developments in the subject and curriculum areas, and promote the value of scholarship
- demonstrate an understanding of and take responsibility for promoting high standards of literacy, articulacy and the correct use of standard English, whatever the teacher's specialist subject
- if teaching early reading, demonstrate a clear understanding of systematic synthetic phonics
- if teaching early mathematics, demonstrate a clear understanding of appropriate teaching strategies.

4. Plan and teach well-structured lessons

- impart knowledge and develop understanding through effective use of lesson time
- promote a love of learning and children's intellectual curiosity
- set homework and plan other out-of-class activities to consolidate and extend the knowledge and understanding students have acquired
- reflect systematically on the effectiveness of lessons and approaches to teaching
- contribute to the design and provision of an engaging curriculum within the relevant subject area(s).

5. Adapt teaching to respond to the strengths and needs of all students

- know when and how to differentiate appropriately, using approaches which enable students to be taught effectively
- have a secure understanding of how a range of factors can inhibit students' ability to learn, and how best to overcome these
- demonstrate an awareness of the physical, social and intellectual development of children, and know how to adapt teaching to support students' education at different stages of development
- have a clear understanding of the needs of all students, including those with special educational needs; those of high ability; those with English as an additional language; those with disabilities; and be able to use and evaluate distinctive teaching approaches to engage and support them.

6. Make accurate and productive use of assessment

- know and understand how to assess the relevant subject and curriculum areas, including statutory assessment requirements
- make use of formative and summative assessment to secure students' progress
- use relevant data to monitor progress, set targets, and plan subsequent lessons

- give students regular feedback, both orally and through accurate marking, and encourage students to respond to the feedback.

7. Manage behaviour effectively to ensure a good and safe learning environment

- have clear rules and routines for behaviour in classrooms, and take responsibility for promoting good and courteous behaviour both in classrooms and around the academy, in accordance with the academy's behaviour policy
- have high expectations of behaviour, and establish a framework for discipline with a range of strategies, using praise, sanctions, rewards consistently and fairly
- manage classes effectively, using approaches which are appropriate to students' needs in order to involve and motivate them
- maintain good relationships with students, exercise appropriate authority, and act decisively when necessary

8. Fulfil wider professional responsibilities

- make a positive contribution to the wider life and ethos of The Academy
- develop effective professional relationships with colleagues, knowing how and when to draw on advice and specialist support
- deploy support staff effectively
- take responsibility for improving teaching through appropriate professional development, responding to advice and feedback from colleagues
- communicate effectively with parents with regard to students' achievements and well-being

PERSONAL AND PROFESSIONAL CONDUCT

A teacher is expected to demonstrate consistently high standards of personal and professional conduct. The following statements define the behaviour and attitudes which set the required standard for conduct throughout a teacher's career.

Teachers uphold public trust in the profession and maintain high standards of ethics and behaviour, within and outside The Academy, by:

- Treating students with dignity, building relationships rooted in mutual respect, and at all times observing proper boundaries appropriate to a teacher's professional position having regard for the need to safeguard students' well-being, in accordance with statutory provisions
- Showing tolerance of and respect for the rights of others not undermining fundamental British values, including democracy, the rule of law, individual liberty and mutual respect, and tolerance of those with different faiths and beliefs
- Ensuring that personal beliefs are not expressed in ways which exploit students' vulnerability or might lead them to break the law.

- Teachers must have proper and professional regard for the ethos, policies and practices of the school in which they teach, and maintain high standards in their own attendance and punctuality. Teachers must have an understanding of, and always act within, the statutory frameworks which set out their professional duties and responsibilities

Other -

- To undertake any other duty as the Principal may reasonably direct
- To be responsible for promoting and safeguarding the welfare and safety of students at all time
- To carry out all duties in a manner which promotes equality of opportunity, dignity and due respect for all persons and is consistent with The Academy's Equal Opportunities Policy
