

Post:	Teacher of Music
Responsible to:	Head of Department (Music)
Responsible for:	Delivery of specialist subject/s to assigned classes
Grade/Pay Range:	MPS/UPS

Job Description

The Music department is part of our Creative Arts faculty - a large and successful team that is constantly developing ways to enhance the learning experience of the students. The staff are very supportive of each other and share good practice and resources regularly. There is strong leadership from the experienced Head of Department.

Facilities and Resources

The school provides outstanding facilities for teaching Music. There are two dedicated spaces – one that is equipped with iMacs for composition and music technology based lessons, the other room with keyboards and other instruments to support the learning of practical music. The new music curriculum will be a focus in the coming months as well as enhancing our music facilities further ready for September.

All members of staff have laptops that can connect to the school intranet and the internet from any classroom or office. Every room also has a Prowise Board. The faculty has comprehensive schemes of learning in place that develop the skills of students on their 7-year journey through the school.

Line of responsibility

The teacher is directly responsible to the Head of Department on curriculum matters and the Heads of Year for pastoral issues.

Job purpose

Teachers make the education of their pupils their first concern and are accountable for achieving the highest possible standards in work and conduct. Teachers should stimulate interest in, encourage curiosity about and provide enjoyment from the study of the arts and encourage responsibility for students own learning.

The basic duties of a teacher are outlined in the current Teaching Standards. The postholder shall maintain a good understanding of the whole school curriculum, teaching and learning, assessment and pastoral policies.

Core responsibilities

Teaching:

- Plan work in accordance with departmental schemes of work, working collaboratively within the department which enables flexible and creative approaches to teaching
- Take account of students' prior levels of attainment and use them to set future targets and inform planning
- Set appropriate and challenging work for all students
- Maintain good discipline by following the Behaviour for Learning policies and procedures
- Ensure punctuality and establish a purposeful working atmosphere during all learning activities
- Ensure effective setting of homework and provide comprehensive feedback to students
- Identify and work appropriately with 'special educational needs', 'academically more able' and 'disadvantaged' students
- Set work when required for absent students

Assessment, recording and reporting:

- Keep accurate records of students' work in line with school's Assessment and Feedback policy
- Mark and return work set, including home learning within an agreed and reasonable time and in line with the school's Assessment and Feedback policies
- Use the school's marking scheme at all times; including guidance on literacy
- Attend parents' evenings as required and keep parents informed about their child's performance and future targets

Pastoral work (Form Tutor):

- Follow the character and culture programme as instructed by the Year Progress Leader schemes or members of the Senior Leadership Team
- Being aware of the strengths and needs of each student
- Undertaking regular tutor reviews with students, providing advice as necessary on strategies to develop key skills and achieve examination targets in all subjects

- Monitoring and providing appropriate advice and guidance on individual student's progress in respect to attendance, homework, behaviour management and acceptable standards of conduct and appearance
- Promoting high standards of behaviour and attitudes to work within the group
- Promptly completing administrative tasks relating to the group
- Other tasks appropriate to the tutor role; including creating a positive form environment

Post threshold teachers:

As a post threshold teacher, to act as a role model for teaching and learning, to make a distinctive contribution to raising standards across the school, to continue to develop their own expertise, provide a sustained and consistent collaborative contribution to the wider work of the school, either internally or outside the school, proactively seek, create and lead on opportunities that have a demonstrably positive impact on creating an outstanding learning environment, and provide regular coaching and mentoring to less experienced teachers.

General:

- The teacher will be part of the school's appraisal scheme. They will have an appraiser who will set agreed targets for the year. The appraiser will monitor and review performance, including classroom teaching. The school will support the continuing professional development of all staff, to ensure that their expertise is being kept up to date
- Update knowledge at a subject and national level by keeping up to date on research and inspection findings and other pedagogical information
- Keep ICT skills updated to ensure effective use of technology
- Demonstrate commitment to own professional development
- Demonstrate commitment to the extra-curricular life of the school
- Attend and contribute to Department, Faculty, Year team and staff meetings
- In relation to the school's development plan, contribute towards the goals and targets
- Maintain a professional interest in educational initiatives relevant to the teacher's subject(s)
